

HR 9037

2005

House Resolution

A resolution designating November 2005 as "Family Month" in Florida.

WHEREAS, America's character begins in the home, where children learn the proper standards of conduct and values, and

WHEREAS, families provide children with the encouragement, support, and love they need to become confident, compassionate, and successful members of society, and

WHEREAS, we must work together to promote and preserve the health and security of our families by upholding the timeless values that have sustained our society throughout history, and

WHEREAS, recent events have reminded Americans of the blessings of family and friends and the importance of faith, and

WHEREAS, parents should be the most prominent and active figures in their children's lives, recognizing that by spending more family time together, they can develop positive and open relationships with their children that will allow them to better engage their children and encourage them to make positive choices, and

WHEREAS, citizens, schools, and civic institutions can assist families by helping to meet the needs of all those who live in our communities, and

WHEREAS, as we work together to strengthen our families, we build a nation of hope and opportunity for all, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

HR 9037

2005

29

30

31

32

33

That the month of November 2005 is designated "Family Month" in Florida and that all Florida residents are urged to observe this day by spending quality time with family members to strengthen relationships between parents and their children.