A bill to be entitled
An act relating to travel-limited life insurance coverage; providing a purpose; specifying prohibited activities by insurers for life insurance coverage relating to lawful travel experiences; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. (1) The purpose of this act is to prohibit a life insurance company from refusing to insure, refusing to continue to insure, limiting the amount, extent, or kind of coverage available to an individual, or charging an individual a different rate for the same coverage solely for reasons associated with an applicant's or insured's past or future lawful travel experiences.

(2) An insurer may not refuse to insure, refuse to continue to insure, limit the amount, extent, or kind of life insurance coverage available to an individual, or charge an individual a different rate for the same coverage solely for reasons associated with an applicant's or insured's past or future lawful travel experiences.

Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2006.
