14	Senate Amendment (with title amendment)
15	Lines 5-568, delete those lines
16
17	and insert:
18	That the following amendments to Sections 3, 4, and 6
19	of Article VII and the creation of Section 27 of Article XII
20	of the State Constitution are agreed to and shall be submitted
21	to the electors of this state for approval or rejection at the
22	next general election or at an earlier special election
23	specifically authorized by law for that purpose:
24	ARTICLE VII
25	FINANCE AND TAXATION
26	SECTION 3. Taxes; exemptions
27	(a) All property owned by a municipality and used
28	exclusively by it for municipal or public purposes shall be
29	exempt from taxation. A municipality, owning property outside
30	the municipality, may be required by general law to make
31	payment to the taxing unit in which the property is 1

2	for educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable
3	purposes may be exempted by general law from taxation.
4	(b) There shall be exempt from taxation, cumulatively,
5	to every head of a family residing in this state, household
6	goods and personal effects to the value fixed by general law,
7	not less than one thousand dollars, and to every widow or
8	widower or person who is blind or totally and permanently
9	disabled, property to the value fixed by general law not less
10	than five hundred dollars.
11	(c) Any county or municipality may, for the purpose of
12	its respective tax levy and subject to the provisions of this
13	subsection and general law, grant community and economic
14	development ad valorem tax exemptions to new businesses and
15	expansions of existing businesses, as defined by general law.
16	Such an exemption may be granted only by ordinance of the 17	county or municipality, and only after the electors of the
18	county or municipality voting on such question in a referendum
19	authorize the county or municipality to adopt such
20	ordinances. An exemption so granted shall apply to 21	improvements to real property made by or for the use of a new
22	business and improvements to real property related to the
23	expansion of an existing business and shall also apply to
24	tangible personal property of such new business and tangible
25	personal property related to the expansion of an existing
26	business. The amount or limits of the amount of such exemption
27	shall be specified by general law. The period of time for
28	which such exemption may be granted to a new business or
29	expansion of an existing business shall be determined by 30	general law. The authority to grant such exemption shall
31	expire ten years from the date of approval by the electors of $\frac{2}{2}$

1 the county or municipality, and may be renewable by referendum
2 as provided by general law.

3 (d) By general law and subject to conditions specified 4 therein, there may be granted an ad valorem tax exemption to a 5 renewable energy source device and to real property on which 6 such device is installed and operated, to the value fixed by 7 general law not to exceed the original cost of the device, and 8 for the period of time fixed by general law not to exceed ten 9 years.

10 (e) Any county or municipality may, for the purpose of 11 its respective tax levy and subject to the provisions of this subsection and general law, grant historic preservation ad 12 13 valorem tax exemptions to owners of historic properties. This exemption may be granted only by ordinance of the county or 14 15 municipality. The amount or limits of the amount of this 16 exemption and the requirements for eligible properties must be specified by general law. The period of time for which this 17 18 exemption may be granted to a property owner shall be 19 determined by general law.

20 (f) By general law and subject to conditions specified 21 therein, twenty-five thousand dollars of the assessed value of 22 property subject to tangible personal property tax shall be 23 exempt from ad valorem taxation.

24 SECTION 4. Taxation; assessments.--By general law regulations shall be prescribed which shall secure a just 25 valuation of all property for ad valorem taxation, provided: 26 (a) Agricultural land, land producing high water 27 recharge to Florida's aquifers, or land used exclusively for 28 29 noncommercial recreational purposes may be classified by general law and assessed solely on the basis of character or 30 31 use. 3

SENATOR AMENDMENT

Bill No. CS for SJR 2-D, 2nd Eng.

1	(b) Pursuant to general law tangible personal property
2	held for sale as stock in trade and livestock may be valued
3	for taxation at a specified percentage of its value, may be
4	classified for tax purposes, or may be exempted from taxation.
5	(c) All persons entitled to a homestead exemption
6	under Section 6 of this Article shall have their homestead
7	assessed at just value as of January 1 of the year following
8	the effective date of this amendment. This assessment shall
9	change only as provided herein.
10	(1) Assessments subject to this provision shall be
11	changed annually on January 1st of each year; but those
12	changes in assessments shall not exceed the lower of the 13	following:
14	a. Three percent (3%) of the assessment for the prior
15	year.
16	b. The percent change in the Consumer Price Index for 17	all urban consumers, U.S. City Average, all items 1967=100, or
18	successor reports for the preceding calendar year as initially
19	reported by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of
20	Labor Statistics.
21	(2) No assessment shall exceed just value.
22	(3) After any change of ownership, as provided by
23	general law, homestead property shall be assessed at just
24	value as of January 1 of the following year , unless the
25	provisions of paragraph (8) apply. Thereafter, the homestead
26	shall be assessed as provided herein.
27	(4) New homestead property shall be assessed at just
28	value as of January 1st of the year following the
29	establishment of the homestead, unless the provisions of 30	paragraph (8) apply. That assessment shall only change as
31	provided herein.

SENATOR AMENDMENT

Bill No. CS for SJR 2-D, 2nd Eng.

1	(5) Changes, additions, reductions, or improvements to
2	homestead property shall be assessed as provided for by
3	general law; provided, however, after the adjustment for any
4	change, addition, reduction, or improvement, the property
5	shall be assessed as provided herein.
6	(6) In the event of a termination of homestead status,
7	the property shall be assessed as provided by general law.
8	(7) The provisions of this amendment are severable. If
9	any of the provisions of this amendment shall be held
10	unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, the
11	decision of such court shall not affect or impair any
12	remaining provisions of this amendment.
13	(8)a. A person who establishes a new homestead as of 14	January 1, 2009, or January 1 of any subsequent year and who
15	has received a homestead exemption pursuant to Section 6 of
16	this Article as of January 1 of either of the two years
17	immediately preceding the establishment of the new homestead
18	is entitled to have the new homestead assessed at less than
19	just value. If this revision is approved in January of 2008, a
20	person who establishes a new homestead as of January 1, 2008,
21	is entitled to have the new homestead assessed at less than
22	just value only if that person received a homestead exemption
23	on January 1, 2007. The assessed value of the newly
24	established homestead shall be determined as follows:
25	1. If the just value of the new homestead is greater
26	than or equal to the just value of the prior homestead as of
27	January 1 of the year in which the prior homestead was
28	abandoned, the assessed value of the new homestead shall be
29	the just value of the new homestead minus an amount equal to 30	the lesser of $500,000 or the difference between the just
31	value and the assessed value of the prior homestead as of 5

1 January 1 of the year in which the prior homestead was abandoned. Thereafter, the homestead shall be assessed as 2 provided herein. 3 4 2. If the just value of the new homestead is less than the just value of the prior homestead as of January 1 of the 5 б year in which the prior homestead was abandoned, the assessed 7 value of the new homestead shall be equal to the just value of the new homestead divided by the just value of the prior 8 homestead and multiplied by the assessed value of the prior 9 homestead. However, if the difference between the just value 10 11 of the new homestead and the assessed value of the new homestead calculated pursuant to this sub-subparagraph is 12 13 greater than $500,000, the assessed value of the new homestead shall be increased so that the difference between the just 14 15 value and the assessed value equals $500,000. Thereafter, the homestead shall be assessed as provided herein. 16 b. By general law and subject to conditions specified 17 therein, the Legislature shall provide for application of this 18 19 paragraph to property owned by more than one person. 20 (d) The legislature may, by general law, for assessment purposes and subject to the provisions of this 21 22 subsection, allow counties and municipalities to authorize by 23 ordinance that historic property may be assessed solely on the 2.4 basis of character or use. Such character or use assessment shall apply only to the jurisdiction adopting the ordinance. 25 The requirements for eligible properties must be specified by 2.6 general law. 27 (e) A county may, in the manner prescribed by general 28 29 law, provide for a reduction in the assessed value of homestead property to the extent of any increase in the 30 31 assessed value of that property which results from the 8:59 AM 10/29/07 s0002De2c-26-j14

SENATOR AMENDMENT

Bill No. CS for SJR 2-D, 2nd Eng.

1	BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the following statement be
2	placed on the ballot:
3	CONSTITUTIONAL REVISION
4	ARTICLE VII, SECTIONS 3, 4, AND 6
5	ARTICLE XII, SECTION 27
6	PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTIONS; LIMITATIONS ON PROPERTY TAX
7	ASSESSMENTSThis revision proposes changes to the State
8	Constitution relating to property taxation. With respect to
9	homestead property, this revision: (1) increases the homestead
10	exemption for levies other than school district levies and (2)
11	provides for the transfer of Save-Our-Homes benefits. With 12	respect to nonhomestead property, this revision (3) provides a
13	$25,000 exemption for tangible personal property and (4)
14	provides for limitations on assessment increases for specified
15	real property that is not homestead property for levies other
16	than school district levies.
17	In more detail, this revision:
18	(1) Increases the homestead exemption by exempting the
19	assessed value greater than $50,000 and up to $75,000. This
20	exemption does not apply to school district levies.
21	(2) Provides for the transfer of accumulated
22	Save-Our-Homes benefits. Homestead property owners will be
23	able to transfer their Save-Our-Homes benefit to a new
24	homestead within 1 year and not more than 2 years after
25	relinquishing their previous homestead; except, if this
26	revision is approved by the electors in January of 2008 and if
27	the new homestead is established on January 1, 2008, the 28	previous homestead must have been relinquished in 2007. If the
29	new homestead has a higher just value than the old one, the
30	accumulated benefit can be transferred; if the new homestead
31	has a lower just value, the amount of benefit transferred will 13 be reduced. The transferred benefit may not exceed $500,000.

 This provision applies to all tax levies.

3 (3) Authorizes an exemption from property taxes of 4 $25,000 of assessed value of tangible personal property. This 5 provision applies to all tax levies.

б (4) Limits the assessment increase for specified real 7 property that is not entitled to the homestead exemption to 10 percent each year. Property will be assessed at just value 8 following an improvement, as defined by general law, and may 9 10 be assessed at just value following a change of ownership or 11 control if provided by general law. This limitation does not apply to school district levies. This limitation is repealed 12 13 effective January 1, 2019, unless renewed by a vote of the electors in the general election held in 2018. 14

Further, this revision:

a. Repeals obsolete language on the homestead exemption when it was less than $25,000 and did not apply uniformly to property taxes levied by all local governments.

b. Provides for homestead exemptions to be repealed if a future constitutional amendment provides for assessment of homesteads "at less than just value" rather than as currently provided "at a specified percentage" of just value.

c. Schedules the changes to take effect upon approval 23 2.4 by the electors and operate retroactively to January 1, 2008, if approved in a special election held on January 29, 2008, or 25 to take effect January 1, 2009, if approved in the general 26 election held in November of 2008. The limitation on annual 27 assessment increases for specified real property shall first 28 29 apply to the 2009 tax roll if this revision is approved in a special election held on January 29, 2008, or shall first 30 31 apply to the 2010 tax roll if this revision is approved in the 14 8:59 AM 10/29/07 s0002De2c-26-j14
