I. Summary:

This legislation continues the current level of employer contributions into a participant's health savings account for those employees participating in the high deductible plans in the State Employee Health Insurance Program.

This bill substantially amends section 110.123 of the Florida Statutes.

II. Present Situation:

Section 110.123, F.S., creates the State Employee Health Insurance Program. As implemented by the Department of Management Services, the program offers four types of health plans: a standard statewide Preferred Provider Organization (PPO) Plan, a Health Investor PPO Plan, a standard Health Maintenance Organization (HMO) Plan, or a Health Investor HMO Plan.

The State Employees' PPO plan, consisting of the standard PPO Plan and the Health Investor PPO Plan, is a self-insured health plan administered by Blue Cross Blue Shield of Florida. The administrator is responsible for processing health claims, providing access to a Preferred Provider Care Network, and managing customer service, utilization review, and case management functions.

Each HMO is a self-administered, pre-paid health plan that provides health services to people who live or work within the HMO's service area. Five HMOs provide coverage in various geographic regions. The standard HMO plan providers are VISTA, Capital Health Plan, AvMed, United Health Care, and Florida Health Care Plan. The Health Investor HMO plan providers are VISTA, AvMed, and United.

A state employee participating in either Health Investor plan is eligible to receive contributions into the employee's health savings account. The participant may draw upon these funds to meet the out-of-pocket medical and pharmacy expenses.

The annual contribution from the State Employee Health Insurance Trust Fund is $500 for single coverage and $1000 for family coverage. These contributions are made in equal monthly installments throughout the plan year. These contributions are funded as part of the employer paid premium for health insurance coverage.

The authority to make employer-paid contributions into a participant's health savings account expires June 30, 2009.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Section 1 amends s. 110.123, F.S., to provide the level of the monthly employer contribution into a participant's health savings account. It will remain at the current level of $41.66 for individual coverage ($500 annually) and $83.33 for family coverage ($1000 annually). It also deletes duplicate language.

Section 2 provides that this act shall take effect July 1, 2009.

A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Substantial Changes:

(Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)

CS by Policy and Steering Committee on Ways and Means on April 7, 2009:

Senate Bill 1800 was originally filed as a shell bill expressing legislative intent to revise laws relating to governmental operations. The Policy and Steering Committee on Ways and Means adopted the committee substitute as described in this bill analysis.

This legislation continues the current level of employer contributions into a participant's health savings account for those employees participating in the high deductible plans in the State Employee Health Insurance Program.

B. Amendments:

None.
