I. Summary:

The bill:

- Removes a provision that requires the Department of State to waive a $400 late fee that would be assessed a business entity (corporations, limited liability companies, and limited partnerships) for filing its annual report and paying its annual fees after the May 1 deadline; and
- Requires administratively-dissolved entities to pay a fee for reinstatement, rather than receiving a waiver. This fee is $600 for corporations, $100 for limited liability companies, and $500 for limited partnerships.

As in current law, fees collected are deposited into the General Revenue Fund. On March 15, 2010, a Revenue Estimating Conference was held and adopted the consensus result at the low-impact estimate. This is a $16.4 million cash increase to the General Revenue Fund in Fiscal Year 2010-11 with an annualized increase of $8.8 million.

This bill substantially amends section 607.193 of the Florida Statutes.

II. Present Situation:

Annually, on May 1, corporations,¹ limited liability companies,² and limited partnerships³ are required to file an annual report and to pay an annual report filing fee⁴ and a supplemental corporate fee⁵ to the Division of Corporations within the Department of State. All fees collected are deposited into the General Revenue Fund.

If the supplemental corporate fee is remitted after May 1, a $400 late charge must be imposed, unless the business entity did not receive the department’s notice to file. The department gives electronic notice via email addresses that are on file with the division, but does provide an accommodation for persons with disabilities by sending a postcard when requested. Almost 100% of the entities are noticed electronically and most entities file via the department’s website.

If a business entity claims that the department failed to give notice, the law requires the department to waive the $400 late fee. If the business entity fails to file by 5 p.m. Eastern Time on the third Friday in September, the department may commence a proceeding to administratively dissolve the entity.⁶

If a dissolved entity files for reinstatement, they are required to pay all unpaid annual report filing fees and supplemental corporate fees and the applicable reinstatement fee; however, the department does not assess the late fee. In addition, if the business entity receives a waiver on the late fee, they are consequently granted a reinstatement-fee waiver. The law does not specifically mandate or allow a reinstatement fee waiver.

Table of Current Fees:

Business Entity	Annual Report Filing Fee	Supplemental Corporate Fee	Total	Late Fee	Reinstatement Fee
Corporations	$61.25	$88.75	$150.00	$400.00	$600.00
Limited Liability Companies	$50.00	$88.75	$138.75	$400.00	$100.00
Limited Partnerships	$411.25	$88.75	$500.00	$400.00	$500.00

During Fiscal Year 2008-09, 15,321 entities filed late and paid the $400 fee. As a result, $6,128,400 was collected and deposited into the General Revenue Fund. However, 136,400 entities filed late, were granted a waiver, and did not pay the $400 late fee.

During Fiscal Year 2008-09, after dissolution, 8,227 entities filed for reinstatement and paid the applicable reinstatement fee. And as a result, $4,936,200 was collected and deposited into the General Revenue Fund. However, due to the waiver, 45,346 dissolved entities filed for reinstatement and did not pay the reinstatement fee (varies from $100 to $600).

* Based on $600 fee

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill removes the supplemental corporate late-fee waiver that is being granted to business entities (corporations, limited liability companies, and limited partnerships) by the Department of State, Division of Corporations. This will also result in the department discontinuing the reinstatement fee waiver that is being granted to entities that received the late-fee waiver.

The bill will take effect upon becoming law.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

None.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

The bill discontinues a supplemental corporate late-fee waiver and a reinstatement-fee waiver currently available to corporations, limited liability companies, and limited partnerships but the level of the fees would not change.

B. Private Sector Impact:

The bill discontinues a supplemental corporate late-fee waiver and a reinstatement-fee waiver currently available to corporations, limited liability companies, and limited partnerships. Entities can avoid the fee by filing annual reports and paying filing and supplemental fees by the May 1 deadline.

C. Government Sector Impact:

The bill discontinues a supplemental corporate late-fee waiver and a reinstatement-fee waiver currently available to corporations, limited liability companies, and limited partnerships. This change will result in additional fees deposited into the General Revenue Fund. On March 15, 2010, a Revenue Estimating Conference was held and adopted the consensus result at the low-impact estimate.⁷ This is a $16.4 million cash increase to the General Revenue Fund in Fiscal Year 2010-11 with an annualized increase of $8.8 million.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

None.
