13 SAT, the ACT, and the College Placement Test, to assess if 14 equivalent scores for end-of-course assessment scores can be 15 determined for passage of an end-of-course assessment. When 16 content alignment and equivalent scores can be determined, the 17 Commissioner of Education shall adopt those scores as meeting 18 the requirement to pass the end-of-course assessment and as 19 being sufficient to achieve additional purposes as determined by 20 rule. Each time that assessment content or scoring procedures
21 change for an end-of-course assessment or for a high school
22 achievement test or an industry certification test under the 23 Industry Certification Funding List, pursuant to rules adopted 24 by the State Board of Education for which an equivalent score is 25 determined, new equivalent scores must be determined.
