SUMMARY ANALYSIS

Mobile home parks are regulated by the state. Because of the cost and difficulty of moving mobile homes, current law requires a mobile home park owner to give tenants at least 6 months notice before eviction on a change of land use (that is, where the land the park is on will be redeveloped into something other than a mobile home park).

This bill requires that, at the beginning of the 6 months eviction period, and if the tenants have created an association, the park owner must offer to sell the park to the association. The association has 45 days to agree to the asking price and terms. If the parties come to an agreement, this bill also requires the Florida Housing Finance Corporation to assist such associations with obtaining financing.

This bill does not appear to have a fiscal impact on state or local governments.

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

The landlord-tenant relationship between a mobile home park owner and a mobile home owner in a mobile home park is a unique relationship. Traditional landlord-tenant concepts are thought inapplicable where the land is owned by the park and the homes on the property are owned by the home owner. This relationship is impacted by the high cost of moving a mobile home. Chapter 723, F.S, governs the relationship between mobile home park owners and mobile home owners. Section 723.004(1), F.S, provides:

The Legislature finds that there are factors unique to the relationship between a mobile home owner and a mobile home park owner. Once occupancy has commenced, unique factors can affect the bargaining position of the parties and can affect the operation of market forces. Because of those unique factors, there exist inherently real and substantial differences in the relationship which distinguish it from other landlord-tenant relationships. The Legislature recognizes that mobile home owners have basic property and other rights which must be protected. The Legislature further recognizes that the mobile home park owner has a legitimate business interest in the operation of the mobile home park as part of the housing market and has basic property and other rights which must be protected.

The Florida Supreme Court, in addressing mobile home park issues, has stated that a hybrid type of property relationship exists between the mobile home owner and the park owner and that the relationship is not simply one of landowner and tenant. Each has basic property rights which must reciprocally accommodate and harmonize. Separate and distinct mobile home laws are necessary to define the relationships and protect the interests of the persons involved.<sup>1</sup>

Before the current downturn in real estate values, escalating property values, especially in the coastal areas, prompted a number of mobile home park owners to close their parks so that the land can be used for a different purpose (such as retail, office, apartments or condominiums). As the economy recovers, mobile home parks will likely again be slated for redevelopment.

Florida Housing Finance Corporation

The Florida Housing Finance Corporation was created in 1980 to manage various programs providing financing and assistance for affordable housing projects. The corporation is public corporation owned by the state. The goal of the corporation is to "help our fellow Floridians obtain safe, decent affordable housing that might otherwise be unavailable to them." The corporation today operates a number of housing-related programs.<sup>2</sup>

This bill amends the legislative intent provisions regarding the Florida Housing Finance Corporation at s. 420.502, F.S., to add that: "Mobile home parks are an essential element of providing affordable housing in the state."

This bill amends s. 420.0003, F.S., to require the Florida Housing Finance Corporation to use its expertise to provide technical assistance to mobile home owners and their associations regarding purchase of their mobile home park. The bill also authorizes the corporation to assist in financing through bonds to be issued by a non-profit organization. If issued, such bonds would not be revenue bonds and would not be backed by the state.

Purchase of Mobile Home Park by Tenants

Section 723.061, F.S., provides the grounds for eviction of a mobile home park resident. One ground for eviction is an eviction of all tenants upon a change in land use. Tenants evicted under this provision must be given at least 6 months' notice.

Section 723.071, F.S., requires a mobile home park owner that offers a mobile home park for sale to the general public must notify the homeowners' association (tenant's association) of the price, terms and conditions of sale. The requirement only applies if the tenants have organized a homeowners association under ch. 723, F.S. The mobile home owners, by and through the homeowners association, may purchase the park at the price, terms and conditions in the notice if the owners execute a purchase contract within 45 days after mailing of the notice. If the park owner later elects to offer the park at a lower price, the home owners have an additional 10 days to meet the price and terms and conditions of the park owner by executing a contract.

This bill amends the eviction provisions of s. 723.061(1)(d), F.S., to provide mobile home owners with a process for purchase of the mobile home park from which they are to be evicted due to a change in land use. The purchase terms are similar to those in current law related to a park owner offering the park for sale. The park owner may not evict the homeowners from the park due to a change of land use unless the park owner first follows the process set forth in the bill.

If the homeowners have formed a homeowners' association pursuant to ss. 723.075-723.079, F.S., the bill requires the park owner to give written notice to the homeowners' association of the homeowners' right to purchase the mobile home park at the price, terms and conditions set forth in the notice. The park owner sets the price, terms and conditions.

The written notice must be provided to the officers of the homeowners' association. The bill gives the homeowners association the right to execute and deliver a contract for purchase of the park to the park owner within 45 days after the mailing of the written notice. The contract must be for the same price and terms and conditions set forth in the written notice. The park owner may not sell to another if the association agrees to a contract.

This bill further provides that, if the park owner and the homeowners' association do not execute a contract within the 45 day period, the park owner may proceed with the eviction. If during the 6 month notice period prior to eviction the park owner elects to offer or sell the park at a price lower than in the initial notice, the park owner must notify the homeowners association and the association has an additional 10 days to agree to the revised offer terms.

This bill also provides that, at the conclusion of the 6 month notice period, the park owner has no further obligation under the amended s. 723.061(1)(d), F.S., or under s. 723.071, F.S.
