Section 3 of chapter 2005-279, Laws of Florida, 61 is repealed. 62 Section 3. The Legislature finds that it is a public 63 necessity that the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of victims of stalking or aggravated stalking, which are held by 64 65 the Office of the Attorney General or contained in voter 66 registration records and voting records held by the Department 67 of State or the supervisor of elections, be made exempt from public-records requirements. The victims, who may be members of 68 69 the voting public, must be afforded the ability to participate 70 in the election process. However, the department and supervisor 71 of elections must maintain a verifiable address in order to 72 place the voter in the proper voting precinct and to maintain 73 accurate records for compliance with state and federal 74 requirements. telephone number defeats the goal of providing safety and security. Allowing victims of stalking or aggravated stalking to

Attorney General facilitates the goal of providing safety and
