House Memorial 1 2 A memorial to the Congress of the United States, 3 urging Congress to repeal the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 4 2002. 5 6 WHEREAS, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act was enacted on July 30, 7 2002, in Pub. L. No. 107-204, and 8 WHEREAS, the stated purpose of the act is "to protect 9 investors by improving the accuracy and reliability of corporate 10 disclosures made pursuant to the securities laws ...," and 11 WHEREAS, this federal legislation was passed with the best of corrective intentions after the discovery of corporate fraud 12 and accounting scandals that cost investors and retirees 13 14 billions of dollars, and WHEREAS, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, in spite of the good 15 16 intentions that motivated its passage, has created an extremely complex maze of federal regulations that are costly and damaging 17 to public companies and diminish the companies' ability to 18 19 compete against foreign financial entities that are not subject to its regulations, and 20 21 WHEREAS, section 404 of the act, as amended in 2010 by the 22 Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, 23 requires management of a company to assess and produce a report 24 on the adequacy of its internal control structure, after which 25 the company's registered accounting firm must then attest to the 26 assessments made by management, and 27 WHEREAS, the enormous work required to gather the 28 information and have it verified through an outside audit is an

58 That the Congress of the United States is urged to repeal 59 the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 to remove the damaging obstacles 60 that the act has created for American public companies and 61 replace it with reasonable non-intrusive measures to protect 62 investors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this memorial be dispatched to the President of the United States, to the President of the United States Senate, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and to each member of the Florida delegation to the United States Congress.
