30 Statutes, rounded up to the next cent.

31 (1) The employer shall make this election in writing. This 32 written election must be dated and prominently displayed in a 33 conspicuous, accessible place on the employer's premises and 34 must remain in effect for at least 1 year until revoked by the 35 employer.

36 (2) If an employer fails to pay a tipped employee the wage
37 guaranteed under this section, or engages in any discriminatory
38 or retaliatory action prohibited under s. 448.110, Florida
39 Statutes, the employer is subject to the civil actions and fines
40 provided for under s. 448.110, Florida Statutes.

41 (3) An employer that pays a tipped employee the wage 42 guaranteed under this section is deemed to have fulfilled the 43 employer's obligations with respect to payment of the state
44 minimum wage. This section does not affect an employer's
45 obligation to comply with the requirements of the federal Fair
46 Labor Standards Act.

47 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2012.
