64	to read:
65	617.1809 Limited agricultural association; conversion to a
66	domestic corporation not for profit
67	(1) As used in this section, the term "limited agricultural 68	association" or "association" means a limited agricultural
69	association formed under ss. 604.09-604.14.
70	(2) A limited agricultural association may convert to a
71	domestic corporation not for profit by filing the following
72	documents with the department in accordance with s. 617.01201:
73	(a) A certificate of conversion, which must be executed by
74	a person authorized in s. 617.01201(6) and such other persons
75	that may be required in the association's articles of
76	association or bylaws.
77	(b) Articles of incorporation, which must comply with s.
78	617.0202 and be executed by a person authorized in s.
79	617.01201(6).
80	(3) The certificate of conversion must include:

88	does not take effect upon filing the certificate of conversion
89	and articles of incorporation, the delayed effective date for
90	the conversion, subject to the limitation in s. 617.0123(2),
91	must be a date certain and the same as the effective date of the
92	articles of incorporation.
93	(4) When the certificate of conversion and articles of
94	incorporation are filed with the department, or upon the delayed
95	effective date, the association is converted to the domestic
96	corporation, and the corporation becomes subject to this
97	chapter. However, notwithstanding s. 617.0123, the existence of
98	the corporation is deemed to have commenced when the association
99	was initially formed under ss. 604.09-604.14.
100	(5) Conversion of a limited agricultural association to a
101	domestic corporation does not affect any obligation or liability
102	of the association which was incurred before the conversion.
103	(6) When a conversion takes effect under this section, all
104	rights, privileges, and powers of the converting association,
105	all property, real, personal, and mixed, and all debts due to
106	the association, as well as all other assets and causes of
107	action belonging to the association, are vested in the domestic
108	corporation to which the association is converted and are the
109	property of the corporation as they were of the association. The
110	title to any real property that is vested by deed or otherwise
111	in the converting association does not revert and is not
112	impaired by the operation of this chapter, but all rights of
113	creditors and all liens upon any property of the association are
114	preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities, and duties of
115	the association attach to the domestic corporation and are
116	enforceable against it to the same extent as if the debts,

117	liabilities, and duties had been incurred or contracted by the
118	corporation.
119	(7) The limited agricultural association is not required to
120	wind up its affairs or pay its liabilities and distribute its
121	assets. Conversion does not constitute a dissolution of the
122	association but is a continuation of the association's existence
123	in the form of the domestic corporation.
124	(8) Before a limited agricultural association may file a
125	certificate of conversion with the department, unless otherwise
126	specified in the association's articles of association or
127	bylaws, the conversion must be approved by a majority vote of
128	the association's members, and the articles of incorporation
129	must be approved by the same authorization required for approval
130	of the conversion. As part of the approval, the converting
131	association may provide a plan or other record of conversion
132	which describes the manner and basis of converting the
133	membership interests in the association into membership
134	interests in the domestic corporation. The plan or other record
135	may also contain other provisions relating to the conversion,
136	including, but not limited to, the right of the converting
137	association to abandon the proposed conversion or an effective
138	date for the conversion which is consistent with paragraph
139	(3)(d).
140	Section 4. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
