- (a) The testimony is based upon sufficient facts or data; (b) The testimony is the product of reliable principles and methods; and
- (c) The witness has applied the principles and methods reliably to the facts of the case; however, the opinion is admissible only if it can be applied to evidence at trial.
- (2) The threshold required by subsection (1) to permit a witness to testify as an expert witness is satisfied if the principles or methods on which such knowledge is based are generally accepted by the relevant expert community.
- (3) The stated testimonial requirements apply in any case in which the expert opinion testimony is based on scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge.
