I. Summary:

SB 366 creates the position of State Poet Laureate and provides requirements for the selection, terms of service, and duties of the State Poet Laureate. It also provides for the designation of past State Poets Laureate as State Poets Laureate Emeritus or Emerita. The position of State Poet Laureate was created by governor’s proclamation in 1928, but is not addressed in current statutory law.

The bill assigns the Florida Council on Arts and Culture certain responsibilities relating to the promotion of poetry and grants the Department of State rulemaking authority to implement the bill’s provisions.

This bill substantially amends sections 265.285 and 265.2863, Florida Statutes.

II. Present Situation:

Florida Council on Arts and Culture

The Florida Council on Arts and Culture is an advisory body within the Department of State.¹ Its duties are to:

- Advocate for arts and culture;
- Advise the Secretary of State in matters pertaining to arts and cultural programs and grants administered by the Division of Cultural Affairs;²

- Encourage the participation in and appreciation of arts and culture;
- Encourage public interest in the state's cultural heritage and expand its resources;
- Encourage and assist freedom of artistic expression;
- Advise the Secretary of State in matters concerning the awarding of grants for arts and culture; and
- Review applications for grants for the acquisition, renovation, or construction of cultural facilities and recommend a priority for the receipt of such grants.³

State Poets Laureate

Generally

As of January 2013, 42 states had an official State Poet Laureate position.⁴ Duties of such poets laureate vary, but all involve the promotion of the reading, writing, and appreciation of poetry.⁵

In Florida

In 1928, the position of Poet Laureate of the State of Florida was established by governor's proclamation.⁶ The position is a lifetime appointment.⁷ Three poet laureates have been appointed since the inception of the position.⁸

Current statutory law does not contain provisions relating to a state poet laureate.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Summary

The bill creates the position of State Poet Laureate in law and provides requirements for the selection, terms of service, and duties of the State Poet Laureate. It provides for the designation of past State Poets Laureate as State Poet Laureate Emeritus or State Poet Laureate Emerita.⁹

² The Division of Cultural Affairs of the Department of State is the state arts administrative agency. Among its duties are the acceptance and administration of state and federal funds provided for the fine arts, grants, and certain programs. See s. 265.284, F.S.

⁸ The position is currently vacant, as the most recent state poet laureate, Edmund Skellings, passed away in August 2012. He was appointed by Governor Robert Graham in 1980, after a competition and selection by an anonymous national panel. See "Florida's Poet Laureate," Florida Division of Cultural Affairs, <http://www.florida-arts.org/programs/poetlaureate/> (last visited March 1, 2013).

⁹ The Merriam-Webster Dictionary defines "emeritus" to mean "one retired from professional life but permitted to retain as an honorary title the rank of the last office held" (<http://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/emeritus>, last visited March 1, 2013). "Emerita" refers to a female in such position (<http://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/emerita>, last visited March 1, 2013).

The bill also assigns certain responsibilities relating to poetry to the Florida Council on Arts and Culture (council) and grants the Department of State (department) rulemaking authority to implement the bill's provisions.

Duties of the Florida Council on Arts and Culture

The bill amends the current duties of the council to also require the council to:

- Promote the reading, writing, and appreciation of poetry throughout the state; and
- Accept nominations and recommend nominees for appointment as the State Poet Laureate.

Establishment, Selection, and Duties of the State Poet Laureate

The bill establishes the honorary position of State Poet Laureate within the department.

The bill requires the council, in accordance with procedures adopted by the department, to accept nominations for State Poet Laureate. The council must solicit nominations from a broad array of literary sources and members of the public.

The bill also requires the council to recommend at least two nominees to the Secretary of State. Each nominee must be:

- A permanent resident of the state;
- A public literary poet who has significant standing inside and outside of the state; and
- Willing and physically able to perform the duties of the State Poet Laureate as prescribed by the department, which may include, but are not limited to, engaging in outreach and mentoring for the benefit of schools and communities throughout the state and performing readings of his or her own poetry, as requested.

The bill requires the Secretary of State to submit one of the council's nominees to the Governor. The Governor must appoint the State Poet Laureate.

Terms of Service of the State Poet Laureate

The bill specifies that the State Poet Laureate will serve a term of 4 years. A vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term must be filled in the same manner as the original appointment.

The bill also provides that each of the state's poets laureate appointed before the effective date of the bill and each State Poet Laureate appointed under the bill's provisions, upon the appointment of his or her successor, will be designated a State Poet Laureate Emeritus or State Poet Laureate Emerita in recognition of his or her service to the state.

The bill specifies that the State Poet Laureate and State Poets Laureate Emeritus or Emerita serve without compensation. The bill does not authorize reimbursement of any expenses incurred by a State Poet Laureate.

Rulemaking Authority

The bill authorizes the department to adopt rules to administer the section.

The bill's effective date is July 1, 2013.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

None.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

None.

C. Government Sector Impact:

The bill adds duties relating to promotion of poetry and selection of State Poet Laureate nominees for the Florida Council on Arts and Culture, and creates duties relating to the selection and appointment of the State Poet Laureate for the Department of State and for the Governor. It also authorizes the department to adopt rules to implement the act. Department staff states costs incurred by solicitation and review of nominations and by rule promulgation will be absorbed by the agency within existing resources.¹⁰ It is likely that costs incurred by the Governor to appoint each State Poet Laureate will also be absorbed within existing resources.

The bill prohibits compensation for State Poets Laureate and does not authorize reimbursement for expenses incurred by State Poets Laureate.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

¹⁰ Email correspondence between Department of State staff and Senate Governmental Oversight and Accountability Committee staff on February 21, 2013 (on file with the Senate Governmental Oversight and Accountability Committee).

VII. Related Issues:Rulemaking

A rule is an agency statement of general applicability that interprets, implements, or prescribes law or policy, including the procedure and practice requirements of an agency as well as certain types of forms.¹¹ An agency may only adopt rules that implement or interpret the specific powers and duties granted by the enabling statute.¹² Because legislative power involves the exercise of policy-related discretion over the content of law,¹³ any discretion given an agency to implement a law must be “pursuant to some minimal standards and guidelines ascertainable by reference to the enactment establishing the program.”¹⁴

The bill authorizes the Department of State to adopt rules to administer the section, but does not explicitly require it. The bill appears to implicitly require rulemaking, however, because it requires the council’s acceptance of nominees to be in accordance with procedures by the department and requires the department to prescribe duties of the State Poet Laureate.¹⁵

Drafting Issues

Lines 56-58 of the bill provide that the Secretary of State must submit one of the council’s nominees to the Governor, and that the Governor must appoint the State Poet Laureate. It is suggested that the bill be amended to clarify that the Governor must appoint the nominee submitted by the Secretary of State the State Poet Laureate.

Other Comments

The bill does not provide a process by which a State Poet Laureate may be removed from the position for reasons such as misconduct.

The bill requires the Secretary of State to submit only one nominee to the Governor; therefore, the Governor does not appear to have any part in the selection of a State Poet Laureate.
