FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Present Situation

The Florida Children and Youth Cabinet (Cabinet) was created in 2007.¹ The Florida Legislature recognized the need to collaborate with the Governor to improve child and family outcomes in the state.² Among other things, the Cabinet was created to enable state agencies and programs that serve children to coordinate policy development and program implementation so services provided to children and youth are planned, managed, and delivered in a holistic and integrated manner.³

The Cabinet is comprised of the Governor and 14 members. These members include the Secretary of Children and Family Services, the Secretary of Juvenile Justice, the director of the Agency for Persons with Disabilities, the director of the Office of Early Learning, the State Surgeon General, the Secretary of Health Care Administration, the Commissioner of Education, the director of the Statewide Guardian Ad Litem Office, the director of the Office of Child Abuse Prevention, and five members representing children and youth advocacy organizations, who are not service providers and who are appointed by the Governor.⁴

Effect of Proposed Changes

The bill expands the membership of the Cabinet to include the Governor and 15 other members. The additional Cabinet position created by the bill will be a superintendent of schools who is appointed to the Cabinet by the Governor.

Current law states that the "Cabinet shall consist of 14 members including the Governor and the following persons . . ." However, the law lists 14 specific members of the Cabinet in addition to the Governor, bringing the total membership of the Cabinet to 15 members. The bill adds one Cabinet position and changes the total membership figure to 16 members, accounting for the Governor.
