342 that the person be referred for consideration for civil 343 commitment before release and the person was not referred 344 because of a mistake, oversight, or intentional act; or

353 custody and delivered to an appropriate secure facility

382 section and the judge determines that there is probable cause to 383 believe that the person is a sexually violent predator, the
