COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Technical Changes

I. Summary:

CS/SB 234 removes the Rating Law prohibition against insuring more than four automobiles per motor vehicle insurance policy.

II. Present Situation:

Since the passage of HB 4B in 1971¹, insurers have been limited to insuring no more than four automobiles per motor vehicle insurance policy.² Most insurers write one policy per vehicle or write multiple policies for a single policyholder who seeks to insure more than four automobiles.³

Under the Rating Law,⁴ a motor vehicle insurance policy is defined by s. 627.041(8), F.S., as a policy that insures a motor vehicle of the private passenger type.⁵ Generally, private passenger automobiles include vehicles such as sedans, station-wagons, and jeeps. Also included are trucks and vans that are not used for business purposes. Examples of this classification include

² There are no historical archive records available on the passage of HB 4B.

³ The term "automobile" is not defined in the Florida Statutes. The Oxford Dictionary definition for "automobile" is "a road vehicle, typically with four wheels, powered by an internal combustion engine or electric motor and able to carry a small number of people." <http://www.oxforddictionaries.com/us> (Last viewed 2/4/15)

⁴ Sections 627.011-627.381, F.S.

⁵ The policy must be delivered or issued for delivery by a Florida-authorized insurer. Additionally, the policy must insure a natural person as the named insured or one or more related individuals resident of the same household, or both.

s. 627.732(3), F.S., where for purposes of the Florida Motor Vehicle No-Fault Law, a private passenger motor vehicle is defined as “any motor vehicle which is a sedan, station wagon, or jeep-type vehicle and, if not used primarily for occupational, professional, or business purposes, a motor vehicle of the pickup, panel, van, camper, or motor home type.” A similar definition is used by the Insurance Services Office (ISO), which defines a private passenger automobile as “a four-wheel auto of the private passenger or station wagon type. A pickup, panel truck or van not used for business is rated as a private passenger auto.”⁶

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

CS/SB 234 deletes the prohibition in s. 627.041(8), F.S., against insuring more than four automobiles in a single motor vehicle insurance policy. Policyholders will no longer need multiple policies to insure more than four private passenger motor vehicles. The CS also conforms this change to the definition of motor vehicle in s. 627.728(1)(a)2., F.S. The Office of Insurance Regulation has indicated they have no concerns on the removal of this restriction.
