57 one parent is deceased, missing, or in a persistent vegetative 58 state and whose other parent has been convicted of a felony or 59 an offense of violence evincing behavior that poses a 60 substantial threat of harm to the minor child's health or 61 welfare, may petition the court for court-ordered visitation
62 with the grandchild under this section.

63 (1) Upon the filing of a petition by a grandparent for 64 visitation, the court shall hold a preliminary hearing to 65 determine whether the petitioner has made a prima facie showing
66 of parental unfitness or significant harm to the child. Absent
67 such a showing, the court shall dismiss the petition and may 68 award reasonable attorney fees and costs to be paid by the 69 petitioner to the respondent.

70 (2) If the court finds that there is prima facie evidence 71 that a parent is unfit or that there is significant harm to the 72 child, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem and shall refer 73 the matter to family mediation as provided in s. 752.015. If 74 family mediation does not successfully resolve the issue of 75 grandparent visitation, the court shall proceed with a final 76 hearing.

77 (3) After conducting a final hearing on the issue of 78 visitation, the court may award reasonable visitation to the 79 grandparent with respect to the minor child if the court finds 80 by clear and convincing evidence that a parent is unfit or that 81 there is significant harm to the child, that visitation is in 82 the best interest of the minor child, and that the visitation
83 will not materially harm the parent-child relationship.

84 (4) In assessing the best interest of the child under 85 subsection (3), the court shall consider the totality of the

86 circumstances affecting the mental and emotional well-being of 87 the minor child, including:

88 (a) The love, affection, and other emotional ties existing 89 between the minor child and the grandparent, including those 90 resulting from the relationship that had been previously allowed 91 by the child's parent.

92 (b) The length and quality of the previous relationship 93 between the minor child and the grandparent, including the 94 extent to which the grandparent was involved in providing 95 regular care and support for the child.

96 (c) Whether the grandparent established ongoing personal
97 contact with the minor child before the death of the parent, 98 before the onset of the parent's persistent vegetative state, or 99 before the parent was missing.

100 (d) The reasons cited by the respondent parent in ending 101 contact or visitation between the minor child and the 102 grandparent.

103 (e) Whether there has been significant and demonstrable 104 mental or emotional harm to the minor child as a result of the 105 disruption in the family unit, whether the child derived support
106 and stability from the grandparent, and whether the continuation 107 of such support and stability is likely to prevent further harm.

108 (f) The existence or threat to the minor child of mental 109 injury as defined in s. 39.01.

110 (g) The present mental, physical, and emotional health of 111 the minor child.

116 (j) The result of any psychological evaluation of the minor
117 child.

118 (k) The preference of the minor child if the child is 119 determined to be of sufficient maturity to express a preference.

120 (l) A written testamentary statement by the deceased parent
121 regarding visitation with the grandparent. The absence of a 122 testamentary statement is not deemed to provide evidence that 123 the deceased or missing parent or parent in a persistent
124 vegetative state would have objected to the requested 125 visitation.

126 (m) Other factors that the court considers necessary to 127 making its determination.

128 (5) In assessing material harm to the parent-child 129 relationship under subsection (3), the court shall consider the 130 totality of the circumstances affecting the parent-child 131 relationship, including:

132 (a) Whether there have been previous disputes between the 133 grandparent and the parent over childrearing or other matters
134 related to the care and upbringing of the minor child.

135 (b) Whether visitation would materially interfere with or 136 compromise parental authority.

137 (c) Whether visitation can be arranged in a manner that 138 does not materially detract from the parent-child relationship, 139 including the quantity of time available for enjoyment of the 140 parent-child relationship and any other consideration related to 141 disruption of the schedule and routine of the parent and the 142 minor child.

143 (d) Whether visitation is being sought for the primary

144 purpose of continuing or establishing a relationship with the 145 minor child with the intent that the child benefit from the 146 relationship.

147 (e) Whether the requested visitation would expose the minor
148 child to conduct, moral standards, experiences, or other factors 149 that are inconsistent with influences provided by the parent.

150 (f) The nature of the relationship between the child's 151 parent and the grandparent.

152 (g) The reasons cited by the parent in ending contact or 153 visitation between the minor child and the grandparent which was 154 previously allowed by the parent.

155 (h) The psychological toll of visitation disputes on the 156 minor child.

157 (i) Other factors that the court considers necessary in 158 making its determination.

159 (6) Part II of chapter 61 applies to actions brought under 160 this section.

161 (7) If actions under this section and s. 61.13 are pending
162 concurrently, the courts are strongly encouraged to consolidate 163 the actions in order to minimize the burden of litigation on the 164 minor child and the other parties.

165 (8) An order for grandparent visitation may be modified
166 upon a showing by the person petitioning for modification that a 167 substantial change in circumstances has occurred and that 168 modification of visitation is in the best interest of the minor
169 child.

170 (9) An original action requesting visitation under this 171 section may be filed by a grandparent only once during any 2-172 year period, except on good cause shown that the minor child is

174 emotional harm caused by a parental decision to deny visitation
175 between a minor child and the grandparent, which was not known 176 to the grandparent at the time of filing an earlier action.

177 (10) This section does not provide for grandparent
178 visitation with a minor child placed for adoption under chapter 179 63 except as provided in s. 752.071 with respect to adoption by 180 a stepparent or close relative.

181 (11) Venue shall be in the county where the minor child
182 primarily resides, unless venue is otherwise governed by chapter 183 39, chapter 61, or chapter 63.

184 Section 4. Section 752.07, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

185 Section 5. Section 752.071, Florida Statutes, is created to 186 read:

187 752.071 Effect of adoption by stepparent or close 188 relative.—After the adoption of a minor child by a stepparent or 189 close relative, the stepparent or close relative may petition
190 the court to terminate an order granting grandparent visitation 191 under this chapter which was entered before the adoption. The 192 court may terminate the order unless the grandparent is able to 193 show that the criteria of s. 752.011 authorizing the visitation
194 continue to be satisfied.

195 Section 6. Section 752.015, Florida Statutes, is amended to 196 read:
