9   Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

10

11           Section 1. Paragraph (k) is added to subsection (2) of 12           section 934.03, Florida Statutes, to read:

13           934.03   Interception and disclosure of wire, oral, or 14           electronic communications prohibited.—

15           (2)

16           (k) It is lawful under ss. 934.03-934.09 for a child under 17           18 years of age to intercept and record an oral communication if 18           the child is a party to the communication and has reasonable
19           grounds to believe that recording the communication will capture
20           a statement by another party to the communication that the other 21           party intends to commit, is committing, or has committed an 22           unlawful sexual act or an unlawful act of physical force or 23           violence against the child.

24           Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2015.
