Section 20. Sections 21 and 22 of this act may be cited as the "Minor Traffic Safety Act."

Section 21. Effective January 1, 2016, section 316.0075, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

316.0075 Operator use of commercial mobile radio services and electronic communications devices.—

(1) Regulation of operator or passenger use of commercial mobile radio services and other electronic communications devices in a motor vehicle is expressly preempted to the state.

521859

- (2) (a) A person younger than 18 years of age who is driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle on the roads of this state may not use any type of mobile telecommunications device.
- (b) "Mobile telecommunications device" means a wireless telephone, computer, or other electronic device used to access the facilities of a communications service as defined in s.

 812.15 for the purpose of transmitting or receiving voice or nonvoice communications or signals including, but not limited to, computer data, electronic mail or messages, games, music, pictures, sound, speech, text, or video. The term "mobile telecommunications device" includes, but is not limited to, a cellular telephone or cellular telephone accessory appliance, computer or computer accessory appliance, game machine, personal digital assistant, or text messaging device, or the functional equivalent of any such device.
 - (c) This subsection does not apply:
- 1. If the motor vehicle is stopped and the engine is not running or the motor vehicle is stopped completely outside the normal flow of traffic.
- 2. If the person is contacting emergency communications E911 system services or otherwise reporting an emergency or criminal or suspicious activity to governmental authorities.
- (d) A violation of this subsection is a noncriminal traffic infraction, punishable as a nonmoving violation as provided in chapter 318.

Section 22. Subsection (7) of section 322.08, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

- 322.08 Application for license; requirements for license and identification card forms.—
- (7) The application form for an original, renewal, or replacement driver license or identification card must include language permitting the following:
