10) .
11	(1) It is recognized	d by the Legislature that operators of 12	nationally televised spor	rting events often experience a public
13	demand for tickets to att	tend or participate in the event that
14	far exceeds their supply.	. As a result, the ability for the 15	general public to have the	ne opportunity to purchase tickets at
16	face value is often sever	cely limited. Random drawings are often
17	used by these event operation	ators to award the ability to purchase

19	sporting event. Courts have held that this mechanism is a
20	reasonable and fair method, as opposed to a 'first come, first
21	serve' system, to distribute tickets that are in limited supply,
22	does not constitute the award of a prize, and that requiring
23	entrants to pay an administrative fee to enter such drawing is
24	not a violation of anti-gambling laws.
25	(2) As used in this section, the term:
26	(a) "Ticket distribution program" means a random drawing by
27	which each entrant pays an administrative fee, not to exceed
28	thirty-five dollars per each separate entry, for a non-
29	transferable opportunity to win the right to purchase, at face
30	value, one or more non-transferable tickets to attend or
