2016320__

262 subparagraph 2. shall maintain the exempt status of that 263 information only if the officer, employee, justice, judge, other 264 person, or employing agency of the designated employee submits a 265 written request for maintenance of the exemption to the 266 custodial agency.

267 4. The exemptions in this paragraph apply to information

270 5. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this 271 paragraph, this paragraph is subject to the Open Government

275 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 276 necessity that the home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of 277 birth, and photographs of current or former emergency medical

279 Statutes; that the names, home addresses, telephone numbers, and 280 places of employment of the spouses and children of such

286 protect such information from being accessible through other 287 means available to the public. Emergency medical technicians or 288 paramedics are public safety officers whose duties as first 289 responders to accidents and life-threatening events often place
290 them in traumatic circumstances in which loss of life and severe

23-00371-16

291 bodily injuries have occurred. They often deal with violent, 292 angry, or mentally unstable individuals. As a result, the 293 Legislature finds that release of identifying and location
294 information of emergency medical technicians or paramedics
295 certified under chapter 401, Florida Statutes, or the spouses
296 and children of such emergency medical technicians or 297 paramedics, could place them in danger of being physically or 298 emotionally harmed or stalked by a person who has a hostile
299 reaction to his or her encounter with such emergency medical 300 technicians or paramedics. The Legislature further finds that 301 the harm that may result from the release of such identifying 302 and location information outweighs any public benefit that may 303 be derived from the disclosure of the information.

304 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2016.
