

1 A bill to be entitled
2 An act relating to direct primary care; creating s.
3 624.27, F.S.; providing definitions; specifying that a
4 direct primary care agreement does not constitute
5 insurance and is not subject to the Florida Insurance
6 Code, including chapter 636, F.S., relating to prepaid
7 limited health service organizations and discount
8 medical plan organizations; specifying that entering
9 into a direct primary care agreement does not
10 constitute the business of insurance and is not
11 subject to the code; providing that a certificate of 12 authority is not required to market, sell, or offer to 13 sell a direct primary care agreement; specifying
14 criteria for a direct primary care agreement;
15 providing an effective date.

16
17 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

18
19 Section 1. Section 624.27, Florida Statutes, is created to 20 read:

21 624.27 Application of code as to direct primary care
22 agreements.—

23 (1) As used in this section, the term:

24 (a) "Direct primary care agreement" means a contract
25 between a primary care provider and a patient, the patient's
26 legal representative, or an employer, which meets the criteria

27 of subsection (4) and does not indemnify for services provided
28 by a third party.

29 (b) "Primary care provider" means a health care provider
30 licensed under chapter 458, chapter 459, chapter 460, or chapter
31 464, or a primary care group practice, that provides medical 32 services to patients which are commonly provided without
33 referral from another health care provider.

34 (c) "Primary care service" means the screening,
35 assessment, diagnosis, and treatment of a patient for the 36 purpose of promoting health or detecting and managing disease or
37 injury within the competency and training of the primary care
38 provider.

39 (2) A direct primary care agreement does not constitute
40 insurance and is not subject to the Florida Insurance Code,
41 including chapter 636. The act of entering into a direct primary 42 care agreement does not constitute the business of insurance and
43 is not subject to the Florida Insurance Code, including chapter
44 636.

45 (3) A primary care provider or an agent of a primary care
46 provider is not required to obtain a certificate of authority or 47 license under the Florida Insurance Code, including chapter 636,
48 to market, sell, or offer to sell a direct primary care
49 agreement.

50 (4) For purposes of this section, a direct primary care
51 agreement must:

52 (a) Be in writing.

53 (b) Be signed by the primary care provider or an agent of 54 the primary care provider and the patient, the patient's legal 55 representative, or an employer.

56 (c) Allow a party to terminate the agreement by giving the 57 other party at least 30 days' advance written notice. The 58 agreement may provide for immediate termination due to a
59 violation of the physician-patient relationship or a breach of 60 the terms of the agreement.

61 (d) Describe the scope of primary care services that are 62 covered by the monthly fee.

63 (e) Specify the monthly fee and any fees for primary care
64 services not covered by the monthly fee.

65 (f) Specify the duration of the agreement and any
66 automatic renewal provisions.

67 (g) Offer a refund to the patient of monthly fees paid in 68 advance if the primary care provider ceases to offer primary
69 care services for any reason.

70 (h) Contain, in contrasting color and in at least 12-point
71 type, the following statements on the signature page:

72 1. The agreement is not health insurance and the primary
73 care provider will not file any claims against the patient's
74 health insurance policy or plan for reimbursement of any primary
75 care services covered by the agreement.

76 2. The agreement does not qualify as minimum essential
77 coverage to satisfy the individual shared responsibility
78 provision of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, 26

CS/CS/HB 37, Engrossed 1

2016

79 | U.S.C. s. 5000A.

80 | Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2016.