COMPANION BILLS:	CS/CS/SM 572

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

CS/HM 935 was adopted by the House on April 19, 2017, as CS/CS/SM 572. The bill includes portions of HM 45, HM 933, SM 568, and SM 710.

The memorial urges Congress to recognize January 1 as "Haitian Independence Day," the month of May as "Haitian American Heritage Month" and "Haitian Heritage Month," May 18 as "Haitian Flag Day," and the month of June as "Caribbean American Heritage Month."

Congress has passed legislation relating to national observances and commemorative months on several occasions. For example, Congress passed legislation to commemorate or authorize the President to proclaim February as "National African American History," November as "American Indian Heritage Month," May as "Jewish American Heritage Month," May as "Asian Pacific Heritage Month," and the period beginning September 15 and ending October 15 as "National Hispanic Heritage Month."

Legislative memorials are not subject to the Governor's veto power and are not presented to the Governor for review. Memorials have no force of law, as they are mechanisms for formally petitioning the federal government to act on a particular subject.

This memorial does not have a fiscal impact on state or local governments.

The memorial is not subject to the Governor's veto powers.

I. SUBSTANTIVE INFORMATION

A. EFFECT OF CHANGES:

Background

Haiti

Located in the Caribbean on the western one-third of the island of Hispaniola, Haiti is a country of approximately 10 million people.¹ Due in part to Haiti's close proximity to the United States, there are approximately 1.5 million² people of Haitian descent living in this country – a large portion of whom reside in and around the city of Miami and the greater South Florida area.

The month of May is of great cultural significance to the people of Haiti and the Haitian diaspora, and as such, many events and celebrations are held during the month throughout the country. "Haitian Flag Day," which is among Haiti's most celebrated holidays, is celebrated on May 18th. Toussaint L'Ouverture, one of the leaders of the Haitian Revolution, is reported to have been born on May 20, 1743.

In addition, various governmental entities in the U.S. have issued resolutions or proclamations recognizing the importance of May in Haitian and Haitian American culture, including, but not limited to, the following:

- In 2001, Miami-Dade County passed a resolution designating May as "Haitian Cultural Heritage Month" and has held annual celebrations in the county ever since;³
- In 2016, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts proclaimed the month of May 2015 to be "Haitian Heritage Month";⁴
- In 2015, the Mayor of the City of Boston and the City of Boston City Council issued separate proclamations to designate the month of May as "Haitian Heritage Month" and to specifically honor "Haitian Flag Day."⁵

At the federal level, several resolutions have been introduced in the U.S. House of Representatives to recognize May as 'Haitian American Heritage Month'. For example, House Resolution 777, sponsored by former Congressman Kendrick Meek, was introduced, but never heard, during the 109th Congress.⁶ Additionally, House Resolution 224, sponsored by Congresswoman Frederica Wilson, was introduced, but never heard, during the 113th Congress.⁷

Congress has passed legislation relating to national observances and commemorative months on several occasions. For example, Congress has passed legislation to commemorate or authorize the President to proclaim February as "National African American History Month," November as "American Indian Heritage Month,” May as “Jewish American Heritage Month,” May as “Asian Pacific Heritage Month,” and the period beginning September 15 and ending October 15 as “National Hispanic Heritage Month.”⁸

Caribbean

The Caribbean, often referred to as the West Indies, includes more than 7,000 islands located to the southeast of the Gulf of Mexico.⁹ Of those islands, 13 are independent island countries.¹⁰ The major languages are Spanish, English, and French patois.¹¹ The population of the Caribbean is roughly 36 million people.¹²

Various proclamations have been proclaimed recognizing the Caribbean including, but not limited to, the following:

- In 2005, the U.S. House of Representatives adopted a concurrent resolution¹³ recognizing the Caribbean people and their descendants and established the month of June as “Caribbean American Heritage Month.” The U.S. Senate passed the resolution in 2006.¹⁴
- In 2016, the White House proclaimed June as “National Caribbean American Heritage Month.”¹⁵
- In 2016, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts proclaimed the month of June, 2016 “Caribbean American Heritage Month.”¹⁶

Effect of the Memorial

The memorial urges Congress to recognize January 1 as “Haitian Independence Day,” the month of May as both “Haitian American Heritage Month” and “Haitian Heritage Month,” May 18 as “Haitian Flag Day,” and the month of June as “Caribbean American Heritage Month.”

Copies of the memorial will be sent to the President of the United States, to the President of the U.S. Senate, to the Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives, and to each member of the Florida delegation to the U.S. Congress.
