11 the petitioner's standing in his or her community. A person may 12 seek a declaratory statement under this subsection before 13 attaining any education, training, experience, or other 14 prerequisites for the license, registration, or certification.

- (b) The agency may not determine that a petitioner's criminal background makes him or her ineligible for a specific occupational or professional license, registration, or certificate unless:
- 1. The petitioner has been convicted of a felony or a violent misdemeanor; and
- 2. The agency determines by clear and convincing evidence that such offense is substantially related to the state's interest of protecting the public health and safety and that granting the license would place the petitioner in a position where the petitioner is likely to harm consumers.
- (c) The agency's conclusion in the declaratory statement must indicate whether:
- 1. The petitioner is disqualified from obtaining the license, registration, or certification due to the petitioner's criminal background, regardless of the petitioner's education, training, experience, or other prerequisites required for the license, registration, or certification.
- 2. The petitioner is not eligible for a specified occupational or professional license, registration, or certification because of his or her criminal background, but that the conclusion may be reversed upon the petitioner's presentation of evidence of rehabilitation or mitigation identified by the agency in the declaratory statement at any time subsequent to the issuance of the declaratory statement.

- 3. Federal laws or regulations may impede the petitioner's licensure, registration, or certification in the profession or occupation.
- 4. Conditions or restrictions imposed by the court on the petitioner for a disqualifying offense may impede the petitioner's licensure, registration, or certification in the profession or occupation.
- (d) The agency's conclusion in the declaratory statement shall be binding on the agency as to the petitioner, unless the petitioner's subsequent criminal history constitutes an independent basis for denial of the petitioner's application for a license, registration, or certification in the profession or occupation. The agency's conclusion is subject to judicial review pursuant to s. 120.68.
- (e) A person seeking a declaratory statement under this subsection must submit to the agency, in addition to the petition for a declaratory statement:
  - 1. A fee set by the agency not to exceed $100;
- 2. A certified copy of each criminal judgment rendered against the petitioner; and
  - 3. A complete set of electronic fingerprints.
- (f) The agency shall submit the fingerprints to the Department of Law Enforcement for a state criminal history record check and the Department of Law Enforcement shall forward them to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history record check. The agency shall review the criminal history record results to determine if the petitioner meets licensure, registration, or certification requirements. The petitioner shall pay the actual cost of state and federal

Section 2. Present subsections (3) through (12) of section 455.213, Florida Statutes, are redesignated as subsections (4) through (13), respectively, subsection (2) of that section is amended, and a new subsection (3) is added to that section, to read:

455.213 General licensing provisions.-

- (2) Before the issuance of any license, the department may charge an initial license fee as determined by rule of the applicable board or, if no such board exists, by rule of the department. Upon receipt of the appropriate license fee, except as provided in subsection (4) (3), the department shall issue a license to any person certified by the appropriate board, or its designee, or the department when there is no board, as having met the applicable requirements imposed by law or rule. However, an applicant who is not otherwise qualified for licensure is not entitled to licensure solely based on a passing score on a required examination. Upon a determination by the department that it erroneously issued a license, or upon the revocation of a license by the applicable board, or by the department when there is no board, the licensee must surrender his or her license to the department.
- (3) (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board shall use the process in this subsection for review of an applicant's criminal record to determine his or her eligibility for licensure as a:
  - 1. Barber under chapter 476;
- 2. Cosmetologist or cosmetology specialist under chapter 477; or

- 3. If an applicant is unable to appear in person due to his or her confinement or supervision, the board must permit the applicant to appear by teleconference or video conference, as appropriate, at any meeting of the board or other hearing by the agency concerning his or her application.
- 4. If an applicant is confined or under supervision, the Department of Corrections and the board shall cooperate and coordinate to facilitate the appearance of the applicant at a board meeting or agency hearing in person, by teleconference, or by video conference, as appropriate.

Section 3. Present subsections (2) through (8) of section 464.203, Florida Statutes, are redesignated as subsections (3) through (9), respectively, and a new subsection (2) is added to that section, to read:

464.203 Certified nursing assistants; certification requirement.

- (2) (a) 1. Except as provided in s. 435.07(4), the board may not deny a person a certificate based on his or her criminal background unless:
- a. The person has been convicted of a felony or a violent misdemeanor; and
- b. The board determines by clear and convincing evidence that such offense is substantially related to the state's interest of protecting the public health and safety.

The board may not deny an application for a certificate solely on the basis of the person's current confinement or supervision.

- 2. After a certification application is approved, the board may stay the issuance of a certificate until the applicant notifies the board of his or her lawful release from confinement or supervision. The board must verify the applicant's release with the Department of Corrections before it issues a license.
