11 their county is located on all security matters for such 12 facilities, but shall retain operational control over the manner 13 in which security is provided. The chief judge of the judicial 14 circuit shall retain decision-making authority to ensure the 15 protection of due process rights, including, but not limited to, 16 the scheduling and conduct of trials and other judicial 17 proceedings, as part of his or her responsibility for the 18 administrative supervision of the trial courts under s. 43.26.

19 (b) Sheriffs and their deputies, employees, and contractors
20 are officers of the court when providing security for trial
21 court facilities under this subsection.
