that meets the standards of s. 39.3035(1) and fulfills the screening requirement of s. 39.3035(2), and the members of a child protection team as described in s. 39.303 whose duties include supporting the investigation of child abuse or sexual abuse, child abandonment, child neglect, and child exploitation or to provide services as part of a multidisciplinary case review team; the names, home addresses, telephone numbers,

12 photographs, dates of birth, and places of employment of the 13 spouses and children of such personnel and members; and the 14 names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended 15 by the children of such personnel and members are exempt from s.
16 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution. This 17 sub-subparagraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review 18 Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed on 19 October 2, 2023, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through 20 reenactment by the Legislature.

21       3. An agency that is the custodian of the information 22 specified in subparagraph 2. and that is not the employer of the 23 officer, employee, justice, judge, or other person specified in 24 subparagraph 2. shall maintain the exempt status of that 25 information only if the officer, employee, justice, judge, other 26 person, or employing agency of the designated employee submits a 27 written request for maintenance of the exemption to the 28 custodial agency.

29       4. The exemptions in this paragraph apply to information 30 held by an agency before, on, or after the effective date of the 31 exemption.

32       Section 2. (1) The Legislature finds that it is a public 33 necessity that the following identifying and location 34 information be exempt from s. 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and 35 s. 24(a), Article I of the State Constitution:

36       (a) The home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, 37 and photographs of current or former directors, managers,
38 supervisors, and clinical employees of a child advocacy center 39 that meets the standards of s. 39.3035(1), Florida Statutes, and 40 fulfills the screening requirement of s. 39.3035(2), Florida

41 Statutes.

42 (b) The home addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, 43 and photographs of current or former members of a child
44 protection team as described in s. 39.303, Florida Statutes,
45 whose duties include supporting the investigation of child
46 abuse, or sexual abuse, child abandonment, child neglect, or 47 child exploitation or to provide services as part of a 48 multidisciplinary case review team.

49 (c) The names, home addresses, telephone numbers,
50 photographs, dates of birth, and places of employment of the 51 spouses and children of personnel and members identified in 52 paragraphs (a) and (b).

53 (d) The names and locations of schools and day care 54 facilities attended by the children of such personnel and 55 members.

56 (2) The Legislature finds that the release of such 57 identifying and location information may place current or former 58 directors, managers, supervisors, and clinical employees of a 59 child advocacy center that meets the standards of s. 39.3035(1), 60 Florida Statutes, and fulfills the screening requirement of s.
61 39.3035(2), Florida Statutes, and the members of a child
62 protection team as described in s. 39.303, Florida Statutes,
63 whose duties include supporting the investigation of child
64 abuse, or sexual abuse, child abandonment, child neglect, or
65 child exploitation or to provide services as part of a 66 multidisciplinary case review team, and the family members of 67 such personnel, in danger of physical and emotional harm from 68 hostile persons who may react inappropriately and violently to 69 actions taken by such directors, managers, supervisors, or

70 clinical employees of a child advocacy center or a member of a 71 child protection team. These personnel and members provide 72 services that are necessary and appropriate for abused, 73 abandoned, neglected, and exploited children. In addition, these 74 personnel and members provide valuable and supportive services 75 to the state's most vulnerable residents. Despite the value of 76 such services, some persons may become hostile toward these 77 personnel and members and may pose a threat to them 78 indefinitely. The harm that may result from the release of
