COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/SB 620 establishes a 10-day (June 1-10, 2018) sales tax exemption on certain items relating to disaster preparedness and protection.

During the exemption period, the following items, under specified maximum values, will be exempt from state sales and use tax and county discretionary sales surtaxes: certain light sources, radios, tarps, "tie-down" kits, fuel tanks, batteries, cellular telephone chargers, food storage coolers, portable generators, storm shutter devices, carbon monoxide detectors, reusable ice, personal locator beacons, and emergency position-indicating radio beacons.

For the 2017-2018 fiscal year, the bill appropriates $70,072 in nonrecurring funds from the General Revenue Fund to the Department of Revenue (DOR).

The Revenue Estimating Conference (REC) has not yet determined the fiscal impact of the bill.

The bill is effective upon becoming law.

II. Present Situation:

Florida Sales and Use Tax

Florida levies a six percent sales and use tax on the sale or rental of most tangible personal property, admissions,¹ transient rentals,² rental of commercial real estate,³ and a limited number of services. Chapter 212, F.S., contains statutory provisions authorizing the levy and collection of Florida's sales and use tax, as well as the exemptions and credits applicable to certain items or uses under specified circumstances. There are currently more than 250 exemptions, exclusions, deductions, and credits from the sales and use tax.⁴ Sales tax is added to the price of the taxable good or service and collected from the purchaser at the time of sale.⁵

In addition to the state tax, s. 212.055, F.S., authorizes counties to impose eight local discretionary sales surtaxes. A surtax applies to "all transactions occurring in the county which transactions are subject to the state tax imposed on sales, use, services, rental, admissions, and other transactions by [ch. 212, F.S.], and on communications services as defined in ch. 202, F.S."⁶ The discretionary sales surtax is based on the tax rate imposed by the county where the taxable goods or services are sold, or are delivered into.

Disaster Preparedness

The Legislature has approved similar sales tax exemptions in preparation for the Atlantic hurricane season, which typically begins on June 1st each year.⁷

The Florida Division of Emergency Management recommends having a plan and preparing property to prevent damage. Additionally, the Division of Emergency Management recommends having a disaster supply kit with items such as a battery-operated radio, flashlight, batteries, and first-aid kit.⁸

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) educates Americans on how to prepare for emergencies through Ready, a public service advertising campaign.⁹ In addition to the items listed in the paragraph above, FEMA recommends cell phone chargers, inverters, or solar chargers as items to include in an emergency preparedness supply kit.¹⁰

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Section 1 of the bill establishes a 10-day period for the exemption of sales and local sales and use tax on certain items relating to disaster preparedness and protection. The exemption period begins at 12:01 a.m. on June 1, 2018, through 11:59 p.m. on June 10, 2018, and applies to the following items:

- A portable self-powered light source selling for $20 or less;
- A portable self-powered radio, two-way radio, or weather band radio selling for $75 or less;
- A tarpaulin or other flexible waterproof sheeting selling for $50 or less;
- An item typically sold or advertised as a ground anchor system or tie-down kit selling for $50 or less;
- A gas or diesel fuel tank selling for $25 or less;
- A package of AAA-cell, AA-cell, C-cell, D-cell, 6-volt, or 9-volt batteries, excluding automobile and boat batteries, selling for $30 or less;
- A cellular telephone battery selling for $60 or less;
- A cellular telephone charger selling for $40 or less;
- A non-electric food storage cooler selling for $30 or less;
- A portable generator that is used to provide light, support communications, or preserve food during a power outage selling for $1,000 or less;
- A storm shutter device selling for $200 or less;¹¹
- A carbon monoxide detector selling for $75 or less;
- Reusable ice selling for $10 or less;
- A single product consisting of two or more of the previously listed items selling for $75 or less;
- A personal locator beacon selling for $600 or less;
- An emergency position-indicating radio beacon selling for $1,500 or less;
- An external portable computer drive for data backup and recovery selling for $200 or less; or
- An inverter, inverter/charger, or uninterruptible power supply system selling for $200 or less.

The bill excludes sales within public lodging establishments,¹² theme parks or entertainment complexes,¹³ or airports¹⁴ from the exemption.

The bill authorizes the Department of Revenue (DOR) to adopt emergency rules in order to implement the sales tax exemption.

Section 1 of the bill expires September 30, 2018.

Section 2 of the bill appropriates $70,072 in nonrecurring funds from General Revenue to the DOR for Fiscal Year 2017-18 to administer the sales tax exemption.

Section 3 provides that the bill is effective upon becoming law.

¹¹ The bill defines the term “storm shutter device” to mean a material or product manufactured, rated, and marketed specifically for preventing window damage from storms.

IV. Constitutional Issues:A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

Subsection (b) of s. 18, Art. VII, Florida Constitution, provides, that except upon approval of each house of the Legislature by two-thirds vote of the membership, the Legislature may not enact, amend, or repeal any general law if the anticipated effect of doing so would be to reduce the authority that municipalities or counties have to raise revenue in the aggregate, as such authority existed on February 1, 1989. However, the mandates requirements do not apply to laws having an insignificant impact,¹⁵ which for Fiscal Year 2017-2018, is $2.08 million or less.¹⁶

The REC has not yet estimated the fiscal impact of the bill. If the REC determines the bill does not have an insignificant impact, the bill may require a two-thirds vote of the membership.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

Indeterminate, but positive. Consumers will see a reduction in the cost of the specified products related to disaster preparation and protection.

C. Government Sector Impact:

The DOR estimates the cost associated with notifying businesses of the sales tax exemption, by printing and mailing a Tax Information Publication (TIP), will be approximately $70,072.¹⁷

¹⁵ An insignificant fiscal impact is the amount not greater than the average statewide population for the applicable fiscal year times $0.10. See Florida Senate Committee on Community Affairs, Interim Report 2012-115: Insignificant Impact, (September 2011), available at <http://www.flsenate.gov/PublishedContent/Session/2012/InterimReports/2012-115ca.pdf> (last visited Nov. 9, 2017).

¹⁶ Based on the Demographic Estimating Conference's population adopted on July 10, 2017. The conference packet is available at <http://edr.state.fl.us/Content/conferences/population/ConferenceResults.pdf> (last visited Nov. 9, 2017).

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

None.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

The bill creates an undesignated section of Florida law.
