Senator Stewart moved the following:

Senate Amendment to Amendment (318628) (with title amendment)

Between lines 436 and 437
insert:

Section 13. Section 790.30, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

790.30 Assault weapons; permit; fee.—
(1) As used in this section, the term “assault weapon” means:

(a) A selective-fire firearm capable of fully automatic,
(b) A part or combination of parts that convert a firearm into an assault weapon, or any combination of parts from which an assault weapon may be assembled if those parts are in the possession of the same person.

(c) A semiautomatic firearm which meets the criteria of one of the following sub-subparagraphs:

1. A semiautomatic rifle that has an ability to accept a detachable magazine and that has one or more of the following:
   a. A folding or telescoping stock.
   b. A pistol grip that protrudes conspicuously beneath the action of the weapon or any feature functioning as a protruding grip that can be held by the nontrigger hand or a thumbhole stock.
   c. A bayonet mount.
   d. A flash suppressor or threaded barrel designed to accommodate a flash suppressor.
   e. A grenade launcher.
   f. A shroud that is attached to the barrel, or that partially or completely encircles the barrel and allows the bearer to hold the firearm with the nontrigger hand without being burned, but excluding a slide that encloses the barrel.

2. A semiautomatic pistol that has an ability to accept a detachable magazine and that has one or more of the following:
   a. The capacity to accept an ammunition magazine that attaches to the pistol at any location outside the pistol grip.
   b. A threaded barrel capable of accepting a barrel extender, flash suppressor, forward handgrip, or silencer.
   c. A slide that encloses the barrel and that allows the shooter to hold the firearm with the nontrigger hand without being burned.

d. A manufactured weight of 50 ounces or more when the pistol is unloaded.

e. A semiautomatic version of an automatic firearm.

f. Any feature capable of functioning as a protruding grip that can be held by the nontrigger hand.

g. A folding, telescoping, or thumbhole stock.

3. A semiautomatic shotgun that has one or more of the following:

a. A folding or telescoping stock.

b. A pistol grip that protrudes conspicuously beneath the action of the weapon.

c. A thumbhole stock.

d. A fixed-magazine capacity in excess of 5 rounds.

e. An ability to accept a detachable magazine.

4. A semiautomatic pistol or a semiautomatic, centerfire, or rimfire rifle with a fixed magazine that has the capacity to accept more than 10 rounds of ammunition.

5. A part or combination of parts designed or intended to convert a firearm into an assault weapon, or any combination of parts from which an assault weapon may be assembled if those parts are in the possession or under the control of the same person.

(2) The Department of Law Enforcement shall issue a permit for ownership of an assault weapon to an applicant who submits a completed application and a one-time fee of $1,000, after the applicant has met the requirements of s. 790.065.

(3) By January 1, 2020, all persons who own an assault weapon in this state must hold a valid permit for ownership of an assault weapon issued pursuant to this section. A person who violates this subsection commits a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(4) The Department of Law Enforcement must adopt rules and procedures to administer this section.

And the title is amended as follows:

Delete line 2515 and insert:
criminal penalties; creating s. 790.30, F.S.; defining the term “assault weapon”; requiring the department to issue a permit for ownership of an assault weapon to an applicant under certain circumstances; requiring all persons who own an assault weapon in this state to hold a valid permit before a specified date; providing criminal penalties; requiring the department to adopt rules and procedures; providing legislative intent;
