Senator Stewart moved the following:

Senate Amendment to Substitute Amendment (726990) (with title amendment)

Between lines 1189 and 1190

insert:

(9) Until such time as the Legislature has the opportunity to review and adopt the recommendations from the commission, an assault weapon or a large-capacity magazine, as defined in s. 790.30, may not be sold, distributed, transferred or conveyed, kept for sale, or offered or exposed for sale.

Section 17. Section 790.30, Florida Statutes, is created to 790.30 Definitions.—As used in this act, the term:

(1) “Assault weapon” means:

(a) A selective-fire firearm capable of fully automatic or burst fire at the option of the user.

(b) A part or combination of parts that convert a firearm into an assault weapon, or any combination of parts from which an assault weapon may be assembled if those parts are in the possession or under the control of the same person.

(c) A firearm not listed in this subsection which meets the criteria of one of the following subparagraphs:

1. A semiautomatic rifle that has an ability to accept a detachable magazine and that has one or more of the following:

   a. A pistol grip that protrudes conspicuously beneath the action of the weapon or any feature functioning as a protruding grip that can be held by the nontrigger hand or a thumbhole stock.

   b. A bayonet mount.

   c. A flash suppressor or threaded barrel designed to accommodate a flash suppressor.

   d. A grenade launcher.

   e. A shroud that is attached to the barrel, or that partially or completely encircles the barrel and allows the bearer to hold the firearm with the nontrigger hand without being burned, but excluding a slide that encloses the barrel.

2. A semiautomatic pistol that has an ability to accept a detachable magazine and that has one or more of the following:

   a. The capacity to accept an ammunition magazine that attaches to the pistol at any location outside the pistol grip.
(3) "Large-capacity magazine" means any ammunition feeding device with the capacity to accept more than 15 rounds, or any conversion kit, part, or combination of parts from which such a device can be assembled if those parts are in the possession or under the control of the same person, but does not include any of the following:

(a) A feeding device that has been permanently altered so that it cannot accommodate more than 7 rounds;

(b) A .22 caliber tube ammunition feeding device; or

(c) A tubular magazine that is contained in a lever-action firearm.
