COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/CS/SB 774 provides that in private adoptions, the adoption entity conducting the preliminary home study is responsible for determining the counseling and educational needs of the adoptive parents.

The bill clarifies that the training mandated by the Department of Children and Families for foster families applies only when children are being adopted from the DCF and does not apply to private adoptions.

The bill also requires that the DCF provide a copy of its record check from the central abuse registry to the adoption entity that is conducting a preliminary home study for adoptive parents.

II. Present Situation:

Section 63.092(3), F.S., requires prospective adoptive parents in private adoption proceedings to undergo a preliminary home study to determine their suitability as adoptive parents.¹ A DCF-licensed child-placing agency or child-caring agency generally conducts the preliminary home study, which includes, among other things, a records check of the prospective parents in DCF's central abuse registry and counseling and education of the intended adoptive parents on adoptive parenting.²

Currently, the statute does not require the results of DCF's record check to be given directly to the entity conducting the preliminary home study. This provision also does not specify what the counseling and education requirements are for prospective adoptive parents in private proceedings; however, DCF imposes the same training requirements it uses for licensing and training prospective foster care parents and emergency shelter parents pursuant to s. 407.175, F.S.³ This training is designed to prepare prospective foster care parents and emergency shelter parents for the unique difficulties they will have to face when caring for children in dependency proceedings with a history of abuse, neglect, or prior placement disruptions.⁴

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill requires DCF to give the results of record checks of its central abuse registry of intended adoptive parents directly to the entity conducting the preliminary home study in private adoption proceedings to ensure the integrity of the reports.

The bill also allows the entity conducting the preliminary home study in private adoption proceedings to determine the counseling and education requirements for the intended adoptive parents. The bill exempts adoptive parents in private adoption proceedings from the training requirements of s. 409.175(14), F.S., involving adoptive parents in dependency proceedings.

The bill is effective October 1, 2018.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

IX. Additional Information:

A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Substantial Changes:
(Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)

CS by Judiciary on February 20, 2018:

The committee substitute no longer includes sections 1 through 7 of the underlying bill. These sections imported the more expeditious procedures of the adoption act, ch. 63, F.S., into the dependency law, ch. 39, F.S., for identifying prospective parents or unmarried biological fathers prior to terminating all parental rights.

CS by Children, Families, and Elder Affairs on January 22, 2018:

The amendment does the following:

- Makes a number of technical and conforming changes including replacing the term “individually served” with the term “personally served” and replacing the term “alleged parent” with the term “prospective parent.”
- Requires certain records check of the Department of Children and Families’ Central Abuse Registry be provided directly to the entity conducting the home study to ensure the integrity of the results and protect the best interest of children being placed for adoption; and

- Allows licensed adoption agencies to use their professional judgement to determine the appropriate counseling and education, dependent upon the type of adoption and the child being adopted.
- Removes the provision that allows the community-based lead care agencies to receive credit for specified adoptions.

B. Amendments:

None.
