Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Section 760.07, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

760.07 Remedies for unlawful discrimination.—Any violation of any Florida statute that makes ~~making~~ unlawful discrimination because of race, color, religion, gender, pregnancy, national origin, age, handicap, or marital status in the areas of education, employment, ~~housing,~~ or public accommodations gives rise to a cause of action for all relief and damages described in s. 760.11(5), unless greater damages are expressly provided for. If the statute prohibiting unlawful discrimination provides an administrative remedy, the action for equitable relief and damages provided for in this section may be initiated only after the plaintiff has exhausted his or her administrative remedy. The term "public accommodations" does not include lodge halls or other similar facilities of private organizations which are made available for public use occasionally or periodically. The right to trial by jury is preserved in any case in which the plaintiff is seeking actual or punitive damages.

Section 2. Subsections (2) and (4) of section 760.34, Florida Statutes, are amended, and subsections (5) and (6) of that section are republished, to read:

760.34 Enforcement.—

51 (2) Any person who files a complaint under subsection (1)
52 must do so ~~be filed~~ within 1 year after the alleged 53 discriminatory housing practice occurred. The complaint must be 54 in writing and shall state the facts upon which the allegations
55 of a discriminatory housing practice are based. A complaint may 56 be reasonably and fairly amended at any time. A respondent may 57 file an answer to the complaint against him or her and, with the 58 leave of the commission, which shall be granted whenever it
59 would be reasonable and fair to do so, may amend his or her 60 answer at any time. Both the complaint and the answer must ~~shall~~ 61 be verified.

62 (4) ~~If, within 180 days after a complaint is filed with~~ 63 ~~the commission or within 180 days after expiration of any period~~ 64 ~~of reference under subsection (3), the commission has been~~
65 ~~unable to obtain voluntary compliance with ss. 760.20-760.37,~~
66 ~~The person~~ aggrieved person may commence a civil action in any 67 appropriate court against the respondent named in the complaint
68 or petition for an administrative determination pursuant to s.
69 760.35 to enforce the rights granted or protected by ss. 760.20-70 760.37 and is not required to petition for an administrative 71 hearing or exhaust administrative remedies before commencing
72 such action. If, as a result of its investigation under 73 subsection (1), the commission finds there is reasonable cause
74 to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred,
75 at the request of the person aggrieved, the Attorney General may

76 bring an action in the name of the state on behalf of the 77 aggrieved person to enforce the provisions of ss. 760.20-760.37.

78 (5) In any proceeding brought pursuant to this section or 79 s. 760.35, the burden of proof is on the complainant.

80 (6) Whenever an action filed in court pursuant to this 81 section or s. 760.35 comes to trial, the commission shall 82 immediately terminate all efforts to obtain voluntary
83 compliance.

84 Section 3. Section 760.35, Florida Statutes, is amended to 85 read:

86 760.35 Civil actions and relief; administrative 87 procedures.—

88 (1) An aggrieved person may commence a civil action ~~shall~~ 89 ~~be commenced~~ no later than 2 years after an alleged 90 discriminatory housing practice has occurred. However, the court 91 shall continue a civil case brought pursuant to this section or 92 s. 760.34 from time to time before bringing it to trial if the 93 court believes that the conciliation efforts of the commission
94 or local agency are likely to result in satisfactory settlement
95 of the discriminatory housing practice complained of in the 96 complaint made to the commission or to the local agency and 97 which practice forms the basis for the action in court. Any 98 sale, encumbrance, or rental consummated prior to the issuance
99 of any court order issued under the authority of ss. 760.20-100 760.37 and involving a bona fide purchaser, encumbrancer, or

101 tenant without actual notice of the existence of the filing of a
102 complaint or civil action under the provisions of ss. 760.20-
103 760.37 shall not be affected.

104 (2) An aggrieved person may commence a civil action under 105 this section regardless of whether a complaint has been filed 106 under s. 760.34(1) and regardless of the status of any such 107 complaint. If the commission has obtained a conciliation
108 agreement with the consent of an aggrieved person under s.
109 760.36, the aggrieved person may not file any action under this 110 section regarding the alleged discriminatory housing practice
111 that forms the basis for the complaint except for the purpose of 112 enforcing the terms of such an agreement.

113 (3) An aggrieved person may not commence a civil action
114 under this section regarding an alleged discriminatory housing
115 practice if an administrative law judge has commenced a hearing
116 on the record on the allegation.

117 (4)~~(2)~~ If the court finds that a discriminatory housing 118 practice has occurred, it shall issue an order prohibiting the 119 practice and providing affirmative relief from the effects of 120 the practice, including injunctive and other equitable relief,
121 actual and punitive damages, and reasonable attorney ~~attorney's~~ 122 fees and costs.

123 (5) (a)~~(3) (a)~~ If the commission is unable to obtain
124 voluntary compliance with ss. 760.20-760.37 or has reasonable
125 cause to believe that a discriminatory practice has occurred:

126 1. The commission may institute an administrative 127 proceeding under chapter 120; or

128 2. The person aggrieved may request administrative relief 129 under chapter 120 within 30 days after receiving notice that the 130 commission has concluded its investigation under s. 760.34.

131 (b) Administrative hearings shall be conducted pursuant to 132 ss. 120.569 and 120.57(1). The respondent must be served written 133 notice by certified mail. If the administrative law judge finds 134 that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about 135 to occur, he or she shall issue a recommended order to the 136 commission prohibiting the practice and recommending affirmative
137 relief from the effects of the practice, including quantifiable
138 damages and reasonable attorney ~~attorney's~~ fees and costs. The 139 commission may adopt, reject, or modify a recommended order only 140 as provided under s. 120.57(1). Judgment for the amount of 141 damages and costs assessed pursuant to a final order by the 142 commission may be entered in any court having jurisdiction
143 thereof and may be enforced as any other judgment.

144 (c) The district courts of appeal may, upon the filing of 145 appropriate notices of appeal, review final orders of the 146 commission pursuant to s. 120.68. Costs or fees may not be 147 assessed against the commission in any appeal from a final order 148 issued by the commission under this subsection. Unless 149 specifically ordered by the court, the commencement of an appeal
150 does not suspend or stay an order of the commission.

151 (d) This subsection does not prevent any other legal or 152 administrative action provided by law.

153 Section 4. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
