 17 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

18
 19 Section 1. Section 456.064, Florida Statutes, is created
 20 to read:

21 456.064 Conversion therapy.—

22 (1) As used in this section, the term "conversion therapy"
 23 means any practice or treatment performed with the goal of 24 changing an individual's sexual orientation, including, but not 25 limited to, efforts to change behavior, gender identity, or

26 gender expression, or to reduce or eliminate sexual or romantic 27 attraction or feelings toward a person of the same gender. The 28 term does not include professional counseling that provides:

29 (a) Support to an individual actively undergoing gender 30 transition; or

31 (b) Acceptance, support, and understanding of an 32 individual or that facilitates an individual's coping, social 33 support, and identity exploration and development, including 34 sexual orientation-neutral interventions to prevent or address 35 unlawful conduct or unsafe sexual practices, provided that the 36 goal of such support is not to change the individual's sexual 37 orientation or gender identity.

38 (2) A person who is licensed to provide professional 39 counseling or who provides counseling as part of his or her
40 professional practice under chapter 458, chapter 459, chapter 41 490, or chapter 491, including, but not limited to, a medical 42 practitioner, osteopathic physician, psychologist,
43 psychotherapist, clinical social worker, marriage and family
44 therapist, or mental health counselor, may not practice or 45 perform conversion therapy for an individual younger than 18
46 years of age. Any such licensed professional who practices or 47 performs or attempts to practice or perform conversion therapy
48 for an individual younger than 18 years of age engages in 49 unprofessional conduct and is subject to disciplinary 50 proceedings by the department and the appropriate board.
