the term "state agency" is defined in s. 112.3187(3) s. 216.011,

24-01833-19 20191488 233 in accordance with s. 112.31895. Upon receipt of notice from the 234 Florida Commission on Human Relations. The complaint must be made in accordance with the requirements of s. 112.31895 of 235 termination of the investigation, the complainant may elect to 236 237 pursue the administrative remedy available under s. 112.31895 or 238 bring a civil action within 180 days after receipt of the 239 notice. 240 (b) Within 60 days after the action prohibited by this section, any local public employee protected by this section may 241 242 file a complaint with the appropriate local governmental 243 authority, if that authority has established by ordinance an 244 administrative procedure for handling such complaints or has 245 contracted with the Division of Administrative Hearings under s. 120.65 to conduct hearings under this section. The 246 administrative procedure created by ordinance must provide for 247 248 the complaint to be heard by a panel of impartial persons 249 appointed by the appropriate local governmental authority. Upon 250 hearing the complaint, the panel must make findings of fact and 251 conclusions of law for a final decision by the local 252 governmental authority. Within 180 days after entry of a final 253 decision by the local governmental authority, the public 254 employee who filed the complaint may bring a civil action in any 255 court of competent jurisdiction. If the local governmental 256 authority has not established an administrative procedure by 257 ordinance or contract, a local public employee may, within 180 258 days after the action prohibited by this section, bring a civil 259 action in a court of competent jurisdiction. For the purpose of 260 this paragraph, the term "local governmental authority" includes 261 any regional, county, or municipal entity, special district,

291	or occurred after an agency's initiation of a personnel action
292	against the employee which includes documentation of the
293	employee's violation of a disciplinary standard or performance
294	deficiency. This paragraph does not apply to an employee of a
295	municipality.
296	(9) (10) AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSESIt shall be an affirmative
297	defense to any action brought pursuant to this section that:
298	(a) The retaliatory adverse action was predicated upon
299	grounds other than, and would have been taken absent, the
300	employee's or person's exercise of rights protected by this
301	section ; or
302	(b) The employee or person disclosed information that was 303	known, or reasonably should have been known, to be false.
304	(10) (11) EXISTING RIGHTSSections 112.3187-112.31895 do
305	not diminish the rights, privileges, or remedies of an employee
306	under any other law or rule or under any collective bargaining
307	agreement or employment contract; however, the election of
308	remedies in s. 447.401 also applies to whistleblower whistle-
309	blower actions.
310	Section 2. Section 112.3189, Florida Statutes, is amended
311	to read:
312	112.3189 Investigative procedures upon receipt of 313	whistleblower whistle-blower information from certain state and
314	independent contractor employees
315	(1) This section only applies to the disclosure of
316	information as described in s. 112.3187(5) by an employee or a
317	former employee of, or an applicant for employment with, a state
318	agency, as the term "state agency" is defined in s. 112.3187(3) ,
319	or by an employee or a former employee of a state agency's

1	24-01833-19 20191488
378	disclosed is the type of information described in s.
379	112.3187(5), that the source of the information is from a person
380	who is an employee or \underline{a} former employee of, or an applicant for
381	employment with, a state agency, as defined in s. 112.3187(3),
382	or an employee or a former employee of a state agency's
383	independent contractor s. 216.011 , and that the information
384	disclosed demonstrates reasonable cause to suspect that an 385	employee or agent of an agency or independent contractor has
386	violated any federal, state, or local law, rule, or regulation,
387	thereby creating a substantial and specific danger to the 388	public's health, safety, or welfare, or has committed an act of 389	gross mismanagement, gross misconduct malfeasance, misfeasance,
390	gross waste of public funds, or gross neglect of duty, the Chief
391	Inspector General or agency inspector general making such 392	determination shall then conduct an investigation, unless the
393	Chief Inspector General or the agency inspector general
394	determines, within 30 days after receiving the allegations from 395	the complainant, that such investigation is unnecessary. For 396	purposes of this subsection, the Chief Inspector General or the
397	agency inspector general shall consider the following factors,
398	but is not limited to only the following factors, when deciding
399	whether the investigation is not necessary:
400	(a) The gravity of the disclosed information compared to 401	the time and expense of an investigation.
402	(b) $\frac{2}{2}$. The potential for an investigation to vield

402 (b)2. The potential for an investigation to yield 403 recommendations that will make state government more efficient 404 and effective.

405 (c) The benefit to state government to have a final 406 report on the disclosed information.

407	(d) 4. Whether the alleged whistleblower whistle-blower
408	information primarily concerns personnel practices that may be
409	investigated under chapter 110.
410	(e) 5. Whether another agency may be conducting an
411	investigation and whether any investigation under this section
412	could be duplicative.
413	(f) . The time that has elapsed between the alleged event
414	and the disclosure of the information.
415	(b) If the Chief Inspector General or agency inspector
416	general determines under paragraph (a) that an investigation is
417	not necessary, the Chief Inspector General or agency inspector
418	general making such determination shall:
419	1. Copy and return, upon request of the complainant, any
420	documents and other materials provided by the individual who
421	made the disclosure.
422	2. Inform in writing the head of the state agency for the 423	agency inspector general making the determination that the 424	investigation is not necessary and the individual who made the 425	disclosure of the specific reasons why an investigation is not
426	necessary and why the disclosure will not be further acted on
427	under this section.
428	(6) The agency inspector general may conduct an
429	investigation pursuant to subsection (5) paragraph (5)(a) only
430	if the person transmitting information to the agency inspector
431	general is an employee or \underline{a} former employee of, or an applicant
432	for employment with, the agency inspector general's agency , or

24-01833-19 20191488 639 action has occurred, is occurring, or is to be taken. 640 (b) Within 15 days after receiving a complaint that a person has been discharged from employment allegedly for 641 642 engaging in disclosing protected activity information under s. 643 112.3187, the Florida Commission on Human Relations shall review 644 the information and determine whether temporary reinstatement is 645 appropriate under s. 112.3187(8)(f) s. 112.3187(9)(f). If the 646 Florida Commission on Human Relations so determines, based upon 647 a legal review of the complaint and accompanying materials, it shall apply for an expedited order to show cause from the 648 649 appropriate agency or circuit court for the immediate 650 reinstatement of the employee who has been discharged subsequent 651 to the disclosure made under s. 112.3187, pending the issuance of the final outcome of order on the complaint. 652 653 (c) The Florida Commission on Human Relations shall notify 654 a complainant of the status of the investigation and any action 655 taken at such times as the commission considers appropriate. 656 (d) If the Florida Commission on Human Relations is unable 657 to conciliate a complaint within 60 days after receipt of the 658 fact-finding report, the Florida Commission on Human Relations 659 shall terminate the investigation. Upon termination of any 660 investigation, the Florida Commission on Human Relations shall 661 notify the complainant and the agency head of the termination of the investigation, providing a summary of relevant facts found 662 663 during the investigation and the reasons for terminating the 664 investigation. A written statement under this paragraph is 665 presumed admissible as evidence in any judicial or 666 administrative proceeding but is not admissible without the consent of the complainant. 667

24-01833-19 20191488 668 (c) (e)1. The Florida Commission on Human Relations may 669 request an agency or a circuit court to order a stay, on such terms as the court requires, of any personnel action for 45 days 670 671 if the Florida commission on Human Relations determines that 672 reasonable grounds exist to believe that a retaliatory 673 prohibited personnel action has occurred, is occurring, or is to 674 be taken. The Florida commission on Human Relations may request 675 that such stay be extended for appropriate periods of time. 676 (d) $\frac{2}{2}$. If, in connection with any investigation under this section, it is determined the Florida Commission on Human 677 678 Relations determines that reasonable grounds exist to believe 679 that a criminal violation has occurred which has not previously 680 been reported prohibited action has occurred, is occurring, or 681 is to be taken which requires corrective action, the Florida 682 Commission on Human Relations shall report the determination 683 together with any findings or recommendations to the agency head 684 and may report that determination and those findings and 685 recommendations to the Department of Law Enforcement and to the 686 state attorney having jurisdiction over the matter Governor and 687 the Chief Financial Officer. The Florida Commission on Human 688 Relations may include in the report recommendations for 689 corrective action to be taken. 690 3. If, after 20 days, the agency does not implement the recommended action, the Florida Commission on Human Relations 691

692 shall terminate the investigation and notify the complainant of 693 the right to appeal under subsection (4), or may petition the 694 agency for corrective action under this subsection.

695 4. If the Florida Commission on Human Relations finds, in 696 consultation with the individual subject to the prohibited

24-01833-19 20191488 697 action, that the agency has implemented the corrective action, 698 the commission shall file such finding with the agency head, 699 together with any written comments that the individual provides, 700 and terminate the investigation. 701 (f) If the Florida Commission on Human Relations finds that 702 there are no reasonable grounds to believe that a prohibited 703 personnel action has occurred, is occurring, or is to be taken, 704 the commission shall terminate the investigation. 705 (g)1. If, in connection with any investigation under this 706 section, it is determined that reasonable grounds exist to 707 believe that a criminal violation has occurred which has not 708 been previously reported, the Florida Commission on Human 709 Relations shall report this determination to the Department of 710 Law Enforcement and to the state attorney having jurisdiction 711 over the matter. 712 (e) 2. If an alleged criminal violation has been reported, 713 the Florida Commission on Human Relations shall confer with the 714 Department of Law Enforcement and the state attorney before 715 proceeding with the investigation of the prohibited personnel 716 action and may defer the investigation pending completion of the 717 criminal investigation and proceedings. The Florida Commission 718 on Human Relations shall inform the complainant of the decision 719 to defer the investigation and, if appropriate, of the 720 confidentiality of the investigation. 721 (f) (h) If, in connection with any investigation under this

721 (1) (1) (1) fit connection with any investigation under this 722 section, the Florida Commission on Human Relations determines 723 that reasonable grounds exist to believe that a violation of a 724 law, rule, or regulation has occurred, other than a criminal 725 violation or a prohibited action under this section, the

726	commission may report such violation to the head of the agency
727	involved. Within 30 days after the agency receives the report,
728	the agency head shall provide to the commission a certification
729	that states that the head of the agency has personally reviewed
730	the report and indicates what action has been or is to be taken
731	and when the action will be completed.
732	(g) (i) During any investigation under this section,
733	disciplinary action may not be taken against any employee of a
734	state agency, as the term "state agency" is defined in s.
735	112.3187(3) s. 216.011, for reporting an alleged prohibited
736	personnel action that is under investigation, or for reporting
737	any related activity, or against any employee for participating
738	in an investigation without notifying the Florida Commission on
739	Human Relations.
740	(h)(j) The Florida Commission on Human Relations may also
741	petition for an award of reasonable attorney's fees and expenses
742	from a state agency, as the term "state agency" is defined in $\underline{s.}$
743	112.3187(3) s. 216.011 , pursuant to s. 112.3187(8) s.
744	112.3187(9) .
745	(4) NOTICE OF TERMINATION
746	(a) If the Florida Commission on Human Relations determines
747	that reasonable grounds do not exist to believe that a
748	retaliatory action occurred, is occurring, or is to be taken,
749	the commission must issue a termination of investigation for no
750	cause, which must provide the reason for terminating the
751	investigation to the state agency and to the complainant.
752	(b)1. If the Florida Commission on Human Relations
753	determines that reasonable grounds exist to believe that a
754	retaliatory action occurred, is occurring, or is to be taken,
I

755	the commission must issue a fact-finding report that may include
756	recommendations to the parties or propose a resolution of the 757	complaint. The commission has 60 days after the date of the
758	report to attempt to resolve the complaint. If the complaint
759	remains unresolved upon expiration of the 60-day period, the
760	commission must issue a notice of termination of investigation
761	with cause which must provide to the affected parties a summary
762	of relevant facts found during the investigation and the reason
763	for terminating the investigation.
764	2. A fact-finding report issued under this paragraph is 765	presumed admissible in evidence in any subsequent judicial or
766	administrative proceeding but is not admissible without the 767	consent of the charging party.
768	(c) Upon receipt of the notice of termination of 769	investigation, a complainant may:
770	1. Bring a civil action in any court of competent
771	jurisdiction within 180 days after rendition of the notice; or
772	2. At least 60 days after rendition of the notice, file a
773	complaint with the Public Employees Relations Commission against 774	the employer-agency regarding the alleged retaliatory action.
775	The Public Employees Relations Commission has jurisdiction over
776	such complaints under ss. 112.3187 and 447.503(4) and (5).
777	Judicial review of any final order of the Public Employees
778	Relations Commission shall be as provided in s. 120.68.
779	(d) The notice provisions of s. 768.28 do not apply to any
780	civil action brought pursuant to ss. 112.3187-112.31895.
781	(4) RIGHT TO APPEAL.
782	(a) Not more than 60 days after receipt of a notice of 783	termination of the investigation from the Florida Commission on

784 Human Relations, the complainant may file, with the Public 785 Employees Relations Commission, a complaint against the 786 employer-agency regarding the alleged prohibited personnel 787 action. The Public Employees Relations Commission shall have 788 jurisdiction over such complaints under ss. 112.3187 and 789 $\frac{447.503(4)}{(4)}$ and $\frac{(5)}{(5)}$.
790 (b) Judicial review of any final order of the commission
791 shall be as provided in s. 120.68.
792 Section 4. Paragraph (f) of subsection (2) of section 793 14.32, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:
794 14.32 Office of Chief Inspector General
795 (2) The Chief Inspector General shall:
796 (f) Coordinate the activities of the Florida Public

813	(a) Receive complaints and coordinate all activities of the
814	agency as required by the Florida Public Whistleblower's
815	Whistle-blower's Act pursuant to ss. 112.3187-112.31895.
816	(b) Receive and consider the complaints which do not meet
817	the criteria for an investigation under the Florida Public
818	Whistleblower's Whistle-blower's Act and conduct, supervise, or 819	coordinate such inquiries, investigations, or reviews as the 820	inspector general deems appropriate.
821	(f) Submit in a timely fashion final reports on
822	investigations conducted by the inspector general to the agency
823	head, except for whistleblower's whistle-blower's
824	investigations, which shall be conducted and reported pursuant
825	to s. 112.3189.
826	Section 6. Paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (2) of 827	section 112.3188, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:
828	112.3188 Confidentiality of information given to the Chief
829	Inspector General, internal auditors, inspectors general, local
830	chief executive officers, or other appropriate local officials
831	(2)
832	(b) All information received by a local chief executive
833	officer or appropriate local official or information produced or 834	derived from fact-finding or investigations conducted pursuant
835	to the administrative procedure established by ordinance by a
836	local government as authorized by s. 112.3187(7)(b) s.
837	112.3187(8)(b) is confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and
838	s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution, if the information
839	is being received or derived from allegations as set forth in
840	paragraph (1)(a) or paragraph (1)(b) and an investigation is 841	active.
