12 under this chapter or restrain any unauthorized act contrary to 13 this chapter.

14 (2) In addition, the Attorney General may file suit against 15 a local governmental entity or local law enforcement agency in a 16 court of competent jurisdiction for declaratory or injunctive
17 relief for a violation of this chapter.

18 (3) If a local governmental entity or local law enforcement 19 agency violates this chapter, the court must enjoin the unlawful 20 sanctuary policy. The court has continuing jurisdiction over the 21 parties and subject matter and may enforce its orders with the 22 initiation of contempt proceedings as provided by law.

23 (4) An order approving a consent decree or granting an 24 injunction must include written findings of fact that describe
25 with specificity the existence and nature of the sanctuary
26 policy that violates this chapter.
