The Committee on Agriculture (Gruters) recommended the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

Section 1. Subsection (4) of section 474.2165, Florida
Statutes, is amended to read:

474.2165 Ownership and control of veterinary medical patient records; report or copies of records to be furnished.—

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a veterinarian may not furnish written patient medical ~~such~~

493660

11 records ~~may not be furnished~~ to, and may not discuss the medical 12 condition of a patient ~~may not be discussed~~ with, any person 13 other than the client or the client's legal representative or 14 other veterinarians involved in the care or treatment of the 15 patient, unless the veterinarian has received ~~except upon~~ 16 written authorization of the client. However, such records may 17 be furnished without written authorization under the following
18 circumstances:

19 (a) To any person, firm, or corporation that has procured
20 or furnished such examination or treatment with the client's
21 consent.

22 (b) In any civil ~~or criminal~~ action, unless otherwise
23 prohibited by law, upon the issuance of a subpoena from a court 24 of competent jurisdiction and ~~proper~~ notice to the client or the 25 client's legal representative by the party seeking such records.

26 (c) In any criminal action or a situation where a 27 veterinarian suspects a criminal violation. If criminal 28 violation is suspected, a veterinarian may, without notice to or 29 authorization from the client, discuss the condition of the 30 patient with and report the violation to a law enforcement 31 officer, an animal control officer who is certified pursuant to 32 s. 828.27(4) (a), or an agent appointed under s. 828.03. However, 33 if a suspected violation occurs on a commercial food-producing 34 animal operation on land classified as agricultural under s.
35 193.461, the veterinarian must provide notice to the client or 36 the client's legal representative before reporting the suspected 37 violation to an officer or agent under this paragraph. The 38 report may not include written medical records except upon the 39 issuance of an order from a court of competent jurisdiction.

40 (d)~~(e)~~ For statistical and scientific research, provided 41 the information is abstracted in such a way as to protect the 42 identity of the patient and the client, or provided written 43 permission is received from the client or the client's legal 44 representative.

45 Section 2. Present subsection (6) of section 828.12, 46 Florida Statutes, is redesignated as subsection (7), and a new 47 subsection (6) is added to that section, to read:

48 828.12 Cruelty to animals.—

49 (6) A person who leaves a dog outside and unattended by use
50 of a restraint during a manmade disaster or a natural disaster
51 commits animal cruelty, a misdemeanor of the first degree,
52 punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or by a fine of not more
53 than $5,000, or both. As used in this subsection, the term:

54 (a) "Manmade disaster" means a situation in which a person
55 has received notice from a local or governmental authority that 56 an event attributed in part or entirely to human intent, error,
57 or negligence, or involving the failure of a manmade system,
58 which results in significant damage has occurred, is occurring,
59 or may soon occur in the person's vicinity.

60 (b) "Natural disaster" means a situation in which a 61 hurricane, tropical storm, or tornado warning has been issued
62 for a municipality or a county by the National Weather Service,
63 or the municipality or county is under a mandatory or voluntary
64 evacuation order.

65 (c) "Restraint" means a chain, rope, tether, leash, cable, 66 or other device that attaches a dog to a stationary object or 67 trolley system.

68 Section 3. Section 828.261, Florida Statutes, is created to 493660

69 read:

70 828.261 Ongoing horse care covenants.-

71 (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a contract 72 for the sale of a horse may include a covenant for the 73 continuing care of the horse, subject to the following
74 provisions:

75 (a) The obligations under the covenant may be provided by a 76 third party that is obligated to provide services and care to an 77 animal that is retired from ownership, for an actuarially
78 appropriate charge, and is not subject to chapter 624.

79 (b) A covenant is valid and annexed to the horse, runs with 80 the horse, and is binding and enforceable upon the purchaser and 81 all future subpurchasers.

82 (c) A covenant must require notice, in writing, before 83 purchase of any subsequent purchaser and must be acknowledged in 84 writing by all such subsequent purchasers, before consummation
85 of the purchase of a covered horse.

86 (d) A covenant may include liquidated damages for failing
87 to comply with the provisions of the covenant.

88 (e) A covenant must include allow any owner to retire the 89 horse into the care and treatment of the third party provider of 90 services under the covenant.

91 (2) An owner is not required to include a covenant for the 92 continuing care of a horse in a contract for the sale of the 93 horse and a purchaser is not required to purchase a horse that 94 includes such a covenant.

95 (3) The Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services may 96 adopt rules adopting the American Association of Equine 97 Practitioners care guidelines for equine rescue and retirement

493660

98 facilities and may include additional standards for the ethical 99 treatment of horses by third party providers of a covenant for 100 the continuing care of the horse. The rules must:

101 (a) Require third party providers to make available a 102 request hotline during normal business hours to be used by an 103 owner that voluntarily decides to retire a horse and effectuate
104 its care under a covenant.

105 (b) Include provisions for the appropriate diet, shelter,
106 pasture, and medical care of horses that are retired under this 107 section.

108 (c) Allow all prior owners of a horse to have notice of the 109 retirement of the horse, along with the address where the horse 110 will be cared for, and the ability to visit the horse during 111 normal business hours 7 days a week.

112 (d) Require submission of an actuarial report and evidence
113 indicating the maintenance of adequate reserves by a third party
114 provider to adequately care for a horse subject to a covenant
115 under this section.

116 (4) This section does not create any covenants that annex
117 to or travel with any other chattel.

118 Section 4. This act shall take effect July 1, 2019.
