354 held by an agency before, on, or after the effective date of the

356 Section 2. (1) (a) The Legislature finds that it is a public
357 necessity to exempt from public records requirements the home
358 addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and photographs of 359 current or former commissioners or commission investigators of 360 the Commission on Offender Review; the names, home addresses,

371 conditional release, conditional medical release, or addiction
372 recovery supervision; and on the determination of whether a 373 releasee has violated the terms of his or her parole. The 381 outweighs any public benefit that may be derived from the 382 disclosure of such information.

383 (2) (a) The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity
384 to exempt from public records requirements the home addresses,
385 telephone numbers, and dates of birth of school administrators;
386 the places of employment of the spouses and children of school
387 administrators; and the names and locations of schools and day
388 care facilities attended by the children of school
389 administrators.

390 (b) School administrators are charged with making decisions
391 related to the discipline, suspension, or expulsion of students;
392 reporting the presence of illicit substances on campus;
393 reporting attendance issues that may result in the suspension of 394 a student's driving privileges; or sanctions against the parents 395 of truant students. The efforts of school administrators affect
