 15 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

 17 Section 1. Section 316.87, Florida Statutes, is amended to 18 read:

19 316.87 Nonemergency medical transportation services.—

20 (1) To ensure the availability of nonemergency medical 21 transportation services throughout the state, a provider
 22 licensed by the county or operating under a permit issued by the 23 county may not be required to use a vehicle that is larger than 24 needed to transport the number of persons being transported or 25 that is inconsistent with the medical condition of the

26 individuals receiving the nonemergency medical transportation 27 services. This subsection ~~section~~ does not apply to the 28 procurement, contracting, or provision of paratransit
 29 transportation services, directly or indirectly, by a county or 30 an authority, pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act of 31 1990, as amended.

32 (2) Subject to compliance with state and federal Medicaid 33 requirements, a transportation network company that:

34 (a) Is under contract with a Medicaid managed care plan;

35 (b) Is under contract with a transportation broker under 36 contract with a Medicaid managed care plan;

37 (c) Is under contract with a transportation broker under 38 contract with the Agency for Health Care Administration; or

39 (d) Receives referrals from a transportation broker under 40 contract with a Medicaid managed care plan or the Agency for 41 Health Care Administration

42
 43 may provide nonemergency medical transportation services under 44 ss. 409.905 and 409.973 to a Medicaid recipient. The Agency for 45 Health Care Administration shall update any regulations, 46 policies, or other guidance, including the Florida Medicaid Non-47 Emergency Transportation Services Coverage Policy, as necessary,
 48 to reflect this authorization by October 1, 2019. Requirements
 49 for transportation network companies and transportation network
 50 company drivers may not exceed those imposed under s. 627.748,

CS/HB 411

2019

51 except as necessary to conform to state and federal Medicaid
52 transportation requirements administered by the Agency for 53 Health Care Administration.

54 (3) Subsection (2) may not be construed to expand or limit
55 the existing transportation benefit provided to Medicaid
56 recipients or to require a Medicaid managed care plan to 57 contract with a transportation network company or transportation 58 broker.

59 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2019.
