WHEREAS, the state of Florida is ranked third nationally in human trafficking abuses, and recognizing that the crime of human trafficking is a gross violation of human rights, the Legislature has taken measures to raise awareness of the practices of human sex trafficking and of labor trafficking of children and adults in this state, and

WHEREAS, the Legislature deems it critical to the health, safety, and welfare of the people of this state to prevent and deter human trafficking networks, and persons who would aid and abet these networks, from operating in this state, and

WHEREAS, repeat offenses to aid and abet traffickers by way of recruitment or financial support, and clients of human trafficking networks who use physical violence, are a particularly extreme threat to public safety, and

WHEREAS, repeat offenders are extremely likely to use violence and to repeat their offenses, and to commit many offenses with many victims, many of whom are never given justice, and these offenders are only prosecuted for a small fraction of their crimes, and

WHEREAS, traffickers and clients of human trafficking networks often use hotels, motels, public lodging establishments, massage establishments, spas, or property rental sharing sites to acquire facilities wherein men, women, and children are coerced into performing sexual acts, which places the employees of these establishments in direct and frequent contact with victims of human trafficking, and

WHEREAS, this state is in critical need of a coordinated and collaborative human trafficking law enforcement response to prepare for future large-scale events taking place in this state, and the Legislature finds that a statewide effort focused on law enforcement training, detection, and enforcement, with additional focus on the safe rehabilitation of survivors, will address this critical need, and

WHEREAS, research from 2011 has demonstrated that a majority of human traffickers' clients are not interviewed by law enforcement, despite having extensive knowledge of the traffickers and the traffickers' practices, and are even used as recruiters for traffickers, and

WHEREAS, human traffickers' clients who were interviewed in the same 2011 research stated that they would think twice about purchasing sex from a victim of human trafficking if they were named on a public database, and

WHEREAS, client and trafficker anonymity has allowed for trafficking networks to continue in the shadows, and the publication of client and trafficker identities would protect the public from potential harm and protect victims of trafficking from future harm, and

WHEREAS, the demand for prostitution is a driving force that fuels sex trafficking, and the Soliciting for Prostitution Public Database will serve to identify those who contribute to the demand for sex trafficking, thereby deterring the overall perpetuation of human trafficking, NOW, THEREFORE,
