An act relating to public accountancy; amending s. 473.302, F.S.; revising a definition; amending s. 473.312, F.S.; revising the percentage of total hours of accounting-related and auditing-related continuing education required by the Board of Accountancy for license renewal; amending s. 473.313, F.S.; updating provisions relating to license reactivation; amending s. 473.322, F.S.; prohibiting a person from performing or offering to perform certain services without a license; revising penalties; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Subsection (8) of section 473.302, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

473.302 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, the term:

(8) "Practice of," "practicing public accountancy," or "public accounting" means:

(a) Offering to perform or performing for the public one or more types of services involving the expression of an opinion on financial statements, the attestation as an expert in accountancy to the reliability or fairness of presentation of financial information, the utilization of any form of opinion or financial statements that provide a level of assurance, the utilization of any form of disclaimer of opinion which conveys an assurance of reliability as to matters not specifically disclaimed, or the expression of an opinion on the reliability of an assertion by one party for the use by a third party;

(b) Offering to perform or performing for the public one or more types of services involving the use of accounting skills, or one or more types of tax, management advisory, or consulting services, by any person who is a certified public accountant who holds an active license, issued pursuant to this chapter, or who is authorized to practice public accounting pursuant to the practice privileges granted in s. 473.3141, including the performance of such services by a certified public accountant in the employ of a person or firm; or

(c) Offering to perform or performing for the public one or more types of service involving the preparation of financial statements not included within paragraph (a), by a certified public accountant who holds an active license, issued pursuant to this chapter, or who is authorized to practice public accounting pursuant to the practice privileges granted in s.
473.3141; by a firm of certified public accountants; or by a firm in which a certified public accountant has an ownership interest, including the performance of such services in the employ of another person. The board shall adopt rules establishing standards of practice for such reports and financial statements; provided, however, that nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to permit the board to adopt rules that have the result of prohibiting Florida certified public accountants employed by unlicensed firms from preparing financial statements as authorized by this paragraph; or(d) Offering to perform or performing for the public one or more types of services involving any attestation engagements in accordance with the Statements on Standards for Attestation Engagements.

However, these terms shall not include services provided by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants or the Florida Institute of Certified Public Accountants, or any full service association of certified public accounting firms whose plans of administration have been approved by the board, to their members or services performed by these entities in reviewing the services provided to the public by members of these entities.

Section 2. Paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 473.312, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

473.312 Continuing education.—
(1)
(b) Not less than \( \frac{10}{25} \) percent of the total hours required by the board shall be in accounting-related and auditing-related subjects, as distinguished from federal and local taxation matters and management services.

Section 3. Subsection (2) of section 473.313, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

473.313 Inactive status.—

(2) A license that has become inactive under subsection (1) or for failure to complete the requirements in s. 473.312 may be reactivated under s. 473.311 upon application to the department. The board may prescribe by rule continuing education requirements as a condition of reactivating a license. The minimum continuing education requirements for reactivating a license are those prescribed by board rule and those of the most recent biennium plus one-half of the requirements in s. 473.312. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the continuing education requirements are 120 hours, including at least 30 hours in accounting-related and auditing-related subjects, not more than 30 hours in behavioral subjects, and a minimum of 8 hours in ethics subjects approved by the board, for the reactivation of a license that is inactive or delinquent on June 30, 2014, if the Florida certified public accountant notifies the Board of Accountancy by December 31, 2014, of an intention to reactivate such a license and completes such reactivation by June 30, 2016.

Section 4. Paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section 473.322, Florida Statutes, is amended, and subsection (2) of that section is republished, to read:

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.
473.322  Prohibitions; penalties.—

(1) A person may not knowingly:

(c) Perform or offer to perform any services described in s. 473.302(8)(a) or (d) unless such person holds an active license under this chapter and is a licensed firm, provides such services through a licensed firm, or complies with ss. 473.3101 and 473.3141. This paragraph does not prohibit the performance by persons other than certified public accountants of other services involving the use of accounting skills, including the preparation of tax returns and the preparation of financial statements without expression of opinion thereon;

(2) Any person who violates any provision of this section commits a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

Section 5. This act shall take effect July 1, 2019.
