313 officers, and their families, may receive threats including, but 314 not limited to, verbal threats, harassment, and intimidation as 315 a result of carrying out their official duties. Vulnerability to 316 such threats may discourage residents of this state from seeking 317 elected office in order to protect themselves and their 318 families. The Legislature further finds that the harm that may 319 result from the release of such personal identifying and 320 location information outweighs any public benefit that may be 321 derived from the disclosure of the information.

322 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2020.
