(1) A manufacturer, distributor, importer, primary American source of supply, or brand owner or registrant of any of the beverages herein referred to, whether licensed or operating in this state or out-of-state, or any broker, sales agent, or sales person thereof, may not have any financial interest, directly or indirectly, in the establishment or business of any vendor licensed under the Beverage Law; nor may shall such manufacturer, distributor, importer, primary American source of supply, brand owner or brand registrant, or any broker, sales agent, or sales person thereof, directly or indirectly, assist any vendor by furnishing, supplying, selling, renting, lending, buying for, or giving to any vendor any vehicles, equipment, furniture, fixtures, signs, supplies, credit, fees, slotting fees of any kind, advertising or cooperative advertising, services, any gifts or loans of money or property of any description, or by the giving of any rebates of any kind whatsoever. A brand owner is a person who is not a manufacturer, distributor, importer, primary American source of supply, brand registrant, or broker, sales agent, or sales person thereof, but who directly or indirectly owns or controls any brand, brand name, or label of alcoholic beverage. Nothing in This section does not shall prohibit the ownership by vendors of any brand, brand name, or label of alcoholic beverage.

(8) The division may adopt rules and require reports to enforce, and may impose administrative sanctions for any violation of, the limitations established under the Beverage Law on any vehicles, equipment, furniture, fixtures, signs, supplies, credit, fees, slotting fees of any kind, advertising or cooperative advertising, services, gifts or loans of money or property of any description, rebates of any kind whatsoever in this section on credits, coupons, and other forms of assistance.

(11) A vendor may display in the interior of his or her licensed premises, including the window or windows thereof, neon, electric, or other signs that require a power source; including window painting and decalcomanias applied to the surface of the interior or exterior of such windows; and posters, placards, and other advertising material advertising the brand or brands of alcoholic beverages sold by him or her, whether visible or not from the outside of the licensed premises. However, a vendor may not shall display in the window or windows of his or her licensed premises more than one neon, electric, or similar sign that requires a power source.
advertising the product of any one brand of alcoholic beverage manufacturer.

(12) Any manufacturer, distributor, importer, primary American source of supply, or brand owner or registrant, or any broker, sales agent, or sales person thereof, may give, lend, furnish, or sell to a vendor who sells the products of such manufacturer, distributor, importer, primary American source of supply, or brand owner or registrant any of the following: neon, or electric, or other signs requiring a power source; signs, window painting and decalcomanias applied to the surface of the interior or exterior of windows; and posters, placards, and other advertising material herein authorized to be used or displayed by the vendor in the interior of his or her licensed premises. As used in this section, the term "decalcomania" means a picture, design, print, engraving, or label made to be transferred onto a glass surface.

(13) Any manufacturer, distributor, importer, primary American source of supply, or brand owner or registrant, or any broker, sales agent, or sales person thereof, who regularly sells merchandise to vendors, or any vendor who purchases merchandise from such manufacturer, distributor, importer, primary American source of supply, or brand owner or registrant, or any broker, sales agent, or sales person thereof, does not violate subsection (1) if:
(a) Such sale or purchase is equal to or greater than the fair market value of the merchandise, not combined with any sale or purchase of alcoholic beverages separately itemized from the sale or purchase of alcoholic beverages, and

(b) Both the seller and purchaser maintain records of any such sale or purchase, including the price and any conditions associated with such sale or purchase of the merchandise.

For purposes of this subsection, the term "merchandise" means commodities, supplies, fixtures, furniture, or equipment. The term does not include alcoholic beverages or a motor vehicle or trailer requiring registration under chapter 320.

(15) The division shall adopt reasonable rules governing promotional displays and advertising. Such rules may not conflict with or be more stringent than the federal regulations pertaining to such promotional displays and advertising furnished to vendors by distributors, manufacturers, importers, primary American sources of supply, or brand owners or registrants, or any broker, sales agent, or sales person thereof; however:

(a) If a manufacturer, distributor, importer, brand owner, or brand registrant of malt beverage, or any sales agent or sales person thereof, provides a vendor with branded expendable retailer advertising specialties such as trays, coasters, mats, menu cards, napkins, cups, glassware, thermometers, and the like, such items may be sold only at a price not less than the actual cost to the industry member who initially purchased them, without limitation in total dollar value of such items sold to a vendor. However, a distributor that receives glassware at no charge on a no-charge invoice from a malt beverage manufacturer or importer may give such glassware to a vendor licensed to sell malt beverages for on-premises consumption. Each piece of glassware given to a vendor by a distributor must bear a permanent brand name intended to prominently advertise the brand. A distributor may not give a vendor more than 10 cases of glassware per calendar year per licensed premises. A vendor that receives a gift of glassware from a distributor may not sell the glassware or return it to a distributor for cash, credit, or replacement. A manufacturer or importer who sells or gives glassware to a distributor, a distributor who sells or gives glassware to a vendor, and such vendor, must maintain records of such sale or gift of glassware.

1. These records must be maintained for 3 years by the industry member. The records may be in any format so long as they are available and legible to division personnel upon request during normal business hours. A copy of any record maintained or produced in compliance with this paragraph shall be provided to each industry member who receives such glassware. The copy shall be in a format accessible and readable by the recipient and may not be provided in an electronic format that would require proprietary software unavailable to the recipient. These records must show:

1. The name and address of the recipient, the recipient's employee or agent receiving the glassware;
2. The recipient's license number;
3. The date furnished or given;
4. The description and quantity of glassware furnished or given;
5. The cost to the industry member determined by the original purchaser's invoice price;
6. The charges to the recipient for the glassware, if any;
7. The name, license number, and address of the industry member providing the glassware.

2. As used in this paragraph, the term:
   a. "Case" means a box containing up to 24 pieces of glassware.
   b. "Glassware" means a single-service glass container that can hold no more than 23 ounces of liquid volume.
(b) Without limitation in total dollar value of such items provided to a vendor, a manufacturer, distributor, importer, primary American source of supply, or brand registrant of malt beverage, or any broker, sales agent, or sales person thereof, may rent, loan without charge for an indefinite duration, or sell durable retailer advertising specialties such as clocks, pool table lights, and the like, which bear advertising matter. If sold, such items may not be sold at a price less than the actual cost to the industry member who initially purchased the items.

(c) If a manufacturer, distributor, importer, brand owner, or brand registrant of malt beverage, or any sales agent or sales person thereof, provides a vendor with consumer advertising specialties such as ashtrays, T-shirts, bottle openers, shopping bags, and the like, such items may be sold only at a price not less than the actual cost to the industry member who initially purchased them, and may be sold without limitation in total value of such items sold to a vendor.

(d) A manufacturer, distributor, importer, brand owner, or brand registrant of malt beverage, or any sales agent or sales person thereof, may provide consumer advertising specialties described in paragraph (c) to consumers on any vendor's licensed premises.

(e) A manufacturer, distributor, importer, brand owner, or brand registrant of malt beverages, and any sales agent or sales person thereof or contracted third-party, may not engage in cooperative advertising with a vendor and may not name a vendor in any advertising for a malt beverage tasting authorized under s. 563.09.

(f) A distributor of malt beverages may sell to a vendor draft equipment and tapping accessories at a price not less than the cost to the industry member who initially purchased them, except there is no required charge, and the distributor may exchange any parts that are not compatible with a competitor's system and are necessary to dispense the distributor's brands. A distributor of malt beverages may furnish to a vendor at no charge replacement parts of nominal intrinsic value, including, but not limited to, washers, gaskets, tail pieces, hoses, hose connections, clamps, plungers, and tap markers.

(16)(a) Notwithstanding other provisions of this section, a manufacturer or importer of malt beverages and a vendor may enter into a written agreement for brand-naming rights and associated cooperative advertising, negotiated at arm's length, for no more than fair market value if all of the following conditions are met:

1. The vendor operates places of business where consumption on the premises is permitted and the premises:
   a. Are located within a theme park complex consisting of at least 25 contiguous acres owned and controlled by the same business entity;
   b. Contain permanent exhibitions and a variety of recreational activities; and
   c. Has a minimum of 1 million visitors annually with a controlled entrance to, and exit from, the enclosed area.

2. Such agreement does not involve, either in whole or in part, the sale or distribution of malt beverages between the manufacturer or importer, or the manufacturer's or importer's distributor, and a vendor.

3. The vendor, as a result of such agreement, does not give preferential treatment to the alcoholic beverage brand or brands of the manufacturer or importer with whom the vendor has entered into such agreement.

4. Such agreement does not directly or indirectly limit the sale of alcoholic beverages of another manufacturer or importer, or distributor.

5. Within 10 days after execution of such agreement, the vendor files with the division a description of the agreement which includes the location, dates, and the name of the manufacturer or importer that entered into the agreement.

As used in this paragraph, the term "negotiated at arm's length" means the negotiation of a business transaction by independent parties acting in each party's own individual self-interest and conducted as if the parties were strangers, so that no conflict of interest may arise.

(b) A manufacturer or importer of malt beverages who is a party to a brand-naming rights agreement may not, directly or indirectly, solicit or receive from any of its distributors any portion of the payment due from the manufacturer or importer of malt beverages to the vendor pursuant to such agreement. Such agreement exists solely between the manufacturer and the vendor.
and does not, directly or indirectly, in any way obligate or place responsibility, financial or otherwise, upon a distributor.

(c) Notwithstanding s. 561.29(3) and (4), a manufacturer of malt beverages, an importer of malt beverages, or a vendor who violates this subsection is subject to:

1. A civil penalty of not more than $25,000, for a first violation.

2. A civil penalty of not more than $100,000 for a second violation occurring within 36 months after the date of the first violation.

3. At the discretion of the division, in lieu of or in addition to the penalty imposed under subparagraph 2., suspension or revocation of the alcoholic beverage license for a third or subsequent violation occurring within 36 months after the date of the first violation.

A violation occurring more than 36 months after a first violation is deemed a first violation under this paragraph. When imposing a civil penalty within the ranges provided in subparagraphs 1. and 2., the division may not impose a civil penalty in an amount greater than the financial value of the brand-naming rights agreement.

If return of such product is requested more than 7 days after the delivery date, the distributor must keep documentation of the recall with the transaction record maintained pursuant to subsection (8).

5. If production or importation of a product is discontinued, a vendor's inventory of the discontinued product may be returned for credit or refund.

(7) DISTRIBUTOR REQUIREMENTS FOR RETURNS.—This section does not require a distributor to accept returns authorized under this section; however, if a distributor accepts return of product, the distributor must:

(a) Provide the exchange of product, credit, or refund to the vendor, as provided in subsections (3)-(5), at the same time the distributor picks up the product being returned.
(b) For damaged or undamaged product, pick up the product being returned within 14 days after receipt of the vendor's request.

(8) TRANSACTION RECORDS.—A distributor must keep and maintain for 3 years a transaction record of each return identifying the vendor's business name, address, and license number; product returned for exchange of product, credit, or refund; and any other documentation required by this section. The distributor must provide a copy of the transaction record to the vendor in a format accessible and readable by the vendor. Such transaction records must be maintained on the distributor's licensed premises, or may be kept at another location in this state if the distributor notifies the division in writing before keeping records in another location, and must be made available to the division upon request for inspection in a format accessible and readable by the division. The distributor must notify the division in writing of any change in recordkeeping location.

vendor for any violation of this section, or any rule adopted
