127	(6) The advisory council must identify three pressing
128	English language learner issues, selected by the advisory
129	council members at their third quarterly meeting each year,
130	related to the following topics:
131	(a) Reform initiatives that address statewide English
132	language learner accountability policies, including research-
133	based assessment accommodations and ESOL program entry and exit
134	criteria appropriate for English language learners.
135	(b) Changes to state law, including, but not limited to,
136	the statutory criteria for awarding the State Seal of
137	Biliteracy; State Board of Education rules; the state plan
138	adopted under the federal Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA); and
139	agreements with the federal government which would remove
140	barriers to or enhance the implementation of education programs
141	offered to English language learners.
142	(c) Changes to teacher preparation and credential
143	standards, professional development and in-service education,
144	ESOL program models, and instructional materials and strategies.
145	(d) Methods for increasing parental engagement in English

147	(e) Funding allocations for English language learner
148	programs.
149	(f) Proposed changes needed in resources allocated to the
150	State University System to achieve improved outcomes for English
151	language learners in middle schools and secondary schools, to
152	increase the graduation rate of English language learners in
153	this state, and to expand the capabilities of ESOL or bilingual
154	programs.
155	(g) Other matters identified by advisory council members.
156	(7) By November 1, 2021, and annually thereafter, the
157	advisory council shall submit a written report to the Governor,
158	the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of
159	Representatives, the Chair of the State Board of Education, the 160	Chair of the Board of Governors, and the Commissioner of
161	Education containing the advisory council's recommendations on
162	the issues identified in subsection (6).
163	(8) The Department of Education shall provide staff and
164	administrative support for the advisory council and shall
165	maintain a webpage with meeting materials, hyperlinks to the 166	parliamentary authority or guidelines explaining key sections of
167	the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, council report
168	drafts, and final reports.
169	Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2020.
