Section 3. Section 384.23, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

384.23 Definitions.—As used in this chapter:
(1) “Department” means the Department of Health.
(2) “County health department” means agencies and entities as designated in chapter 154.
(3) “Sexual conduct” means conduct between persons, regardless of gender, which is capable of transmitting a sexually transmissible disease, including, but not limited to, contact between a:
   (a) Penis and a vulva or an anus; or
   (b) Mouth and a penis, a vulva, or an anus.
(4) “Sexually transmissible disease” means a bacterial, viral, fungal, or parasitic disease determined by rule of the department to be sexually transmissible, to be a threat to the public health and welfare, and to be a disease for which a legitimate public interest will be served by providing for prevention, elimination, control, and treatment. The department must, by rule, determine which diseases are to be designated as sexually transmissible diseases and shall consider the recommendations and classifications of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and other nationally recognized medical authorities in that determination. Not all diseases that are sexually transmissible need be designated for the purposes of this act.

(5) “Substantial risk of transmission” means a reasonable probability of disease transmission as proven by competent medical or epidemiological evidence.

Section 4. Section 384.24, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

384.24 Unlawful acts.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person who has chancroid, gonorrhea, granuloma inguinale, lymphogranuloma venereum, genital herpes simplex, chlamydia, nongonococcal urethritis (NGU), pelvic inflammatory disease (PID)/acute salpingitis, or syphilis, when such person knows that he or she is infected with one or more of these diseases and when such person has been informed that he or she could may communicate this disease to another person through sexual conduct intercourse, to act with the intent to transmit the disease, to engage in sexual conduct that poses a substantial risk of transmission to another person when the intercourse with any other person is unaware that the person is a carrier of the disease, and to transmit the disease to the, unless such other person has been informed of the presence of the sexually transmissible disease and has consented to the sexual intercourse.
