COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/SB 928 exempts from public inspection and copying requirements the personal identifying information of a physician, other than the physician's name, licensure status, or licensure number, obtained from the coordinated information system under the Interstate Medical Licensure Compact, as defined in s. 456.4501, F.S.,¹ and held by the Department of Health (DOH) or the Board (the Board of Medicine or the Board of Osteopathic Medicine).² This information is not exempt from public records requirements under the bill if the state originally reporting the information to the coordinated information system authorizes disclosure of such information by law.

The bill exempts from public meeting requirements a meeting or a portion of the meeting of the Interstate Medical Licensure Commission established under the Interstate Medical Licensure Compact. The exemption applies when matters specifically exempted from disclosure by state or federal law are discussed. The bill provides that recordings, minutes, and records generated from those meetings are also exempt from requirements to disclose such public records.

The bill has no impact on state revenues or state expenditures.

¹ Section 456.4501, F.S., is created in SB 926 and establishes the state's participation in the Interstate Medical Licensure Compact and the coordinated information system.

² Section 456.001, F.S.

The bill provides an effective date of the same date that SB 926 or similar legislation takes effect. SB 926, the substantive bill authorizing Florida's participation in the Interstate Medical Licensure Compact, has an effective date of July 1, 2021.

The bill provides for the repeal of the exemption on October 2, 2025, unless reviewed and reenacted by the Legislature. It also provides statements of public necessity for the public records and public meetings exemptions as required by the State Constitution.

The bill creates a new public records exemption; therefore, a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting in each house of the Legislature is required for final passage.

II. Present Situation:

Access to Public Records - Generally

The Florida Constitution provides that the public has the right to inspect or copy records made or received in connection with official governmental business.³ The right to inspect or copy applies to the official business of any public body, officer, or employee of the state, including all three branches of state government, local governmental entities, and any person acting on behalf of the government.⁴

Additional requirements and exemptions related to public records are found in various statutes and rules, depending on the branch of government involved. For instance, s. 11.0431, F.S., provides public access requirements for legislative records. Relevant exemptions are codified in s. 11.0431(2)-(3), F.S., and the statutory provisions are adopted in the rules of each house of the legislature.⁵ Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.420 governs public access to judicial branch records.⁶ Lastly, ch. 119, F.S., provides requirements for public records held by executive agencies.

Executive Agency Records – The Public Records Act

Chapter 119, F.S., known as the Public Records Act, provides that all state, county and municipal records are open for personal inspection and copying by any person, and that providing access to public records is a duty of each agency.⁷

⁴ Id.

⁵ See Rule 1.48, Rules and Manual of the Florida Senate, (2018-2020) and Rule 14.1, Rules of the Florida House of Representatives, Edition 2, (2018-2020)

⁶ State v. Wooten, 260 So. 3d 1060 (Fla. 4th DCA 2018).

⁷ Section 119.01(1), F.S. Section 119.011(2), F.S., defines “agency” as “any state, county, district, authority, or municipal officer, department, division, board, bureau, commission, or other separate unit of government created or established by law including, for the purposes of this chapter, the Commission on Ethics, the Public Service Commission, and the Office of Public Counsel, and any other public or private agency, person, partnership, corporation, or business entity acting on behalf of any public agency.”

A public record includes virtually any document or recording, regardless of its physical form or how it may be transmitted.⁸ The Florida Supreme Court has interpreted the statutory definition of “public record” to include “material prepared in connection with official agency business which is intended to perpetuate, communicate, or formalize knowledge of some type.”⁹

The Florida Statutes specify conditions under which public access to public records must be provided. The Public Records Act guarantees every person’s right to inspect and copy any public record at any reasonable time, under reasonable conditions, and under supervision by the custodian of the public record.¹⁰ A violation of the Public Records Act may result in civil or criminal liability.¹¹

The Legislature may exempt public records from public access requirements by passing a general law by a two-thirds vote of both the House and the Senate.¹² The exemption must state with specificity the public necessity justifying the exemption and must be no broader than necessary to accomplish the stated purpose of the exemption.¹³

General exemptions from the public records requirements are contained in the Public Records Act.¹⁴ Specific exemptions often are placed in the substantive statutes relating to a particular agency or program.¹⁵

When creating a public records exemption, the Legislature may provide that a record is “exempt” or “confidential and exempt.” Custodians of records designated as “exempt” are not prohibited from disclosing the record; rather, the exemption means that the custodian cannot be compelled to disclose the record.¹⁶ Custodians of records designated as “confidential and exempt” may not disclose the record except under circumstances specifically defined by the Legislature.¹⁷

⁸ Section 119.011(12), F.S., defines “public record” to mean “all documents, papers, letters, maps, books, tapes, photographs, films, sound recordings, data processing software, or other material, regardless of the physical form, characteristics, or means of transmission, made or received pursuant to law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business by any agency.”

Open Government Sunset Review Act

The Open Government Sunset Review Act¹⁸ (the Act) prescribes a legislative review process for newly created or substantially amended¹⁹ public records or open meetings exemptions, with specified exceptions.²⁰ It requires the automatic repeal of such exemption on October 2nd of the fifth year after creation or substantial amendment, unless the Legislature reenacts the exemption.²¹

Open Meetings Law

The State Constitution provides that the public has a right to access governmental meetings.²² Each collegial body must provide notice of its meetings to the public and permit the public to attend any meeting at which official acts are taken or at which public business is transacted or discussed.²³ This applies to the meetings of any collegial body of the executive branch of state government, counties, municipalities, school districts or special districts.²⁴

Public policy regarding access to government meetings also is addressed in the Florida Statutes. Section 286.011, F.S., which is also known as the “Government in the Sunshine Law,”²⁵ or the “Sunshine Law,”²⁶ requires all meetings of any board or commission of any state or local agency or authority at which official acts are to be taken be open to the public.²⁷ The board or commission must provide the public reasonable notice of such meetings.²⁸ Public meetings may not be held at any location that discriminates on the basis of sex, age, race, creed, color, origin or economic status or which operates in a manner that unreasonably restricts the public’s access to the facility.²⁹ Minutes of a public meeting must be promptly recorded and open to public inspection.³⁰ Failure to abide by public meetings requirements will invalidate any resolution, rule or formal action adopted at a meeting.³¹ A public officer or member of a governmental entity who violates the Sunshine Law is subject to civil and criminal penalties.³²

¹⁸ Section 119.15, F.S.

¹⁹ An exemption is considered to be substantially amended if it is expanded to include more records or information or to include meetings as well as records. Section 119.15(4)(b), F.S.

²⁰ Section 119.15(2)(a) and (b), F.S., provide that exemptions that are required by federal law or are applicable solely to the Legislature or the State Court System are not subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act.

²¹ Section 119.15(3), F.S.

²² FLA CONST. art. I, s. 24(b).

²⁴ FLA CONST. art. I, s. 24(b). Meetings of the Legislature are governed by Article III, section 4(e) of the Florida Constitution, which states: “The rules of procedure of each house shall further provide that all prearranged gatherings, between more than two members of the legislature, or between the governor, the president of the senate, or the speaker of the house of representatives, the purpose of which is to agree upon formal legislative action that will be taken at a subsequent time, or at which formal legislative action is taken, regarding pending legislation or amendments, shall be reasonably open to the public.”

³² Section 286.011(3), F.S.

The Legislature may create an exemption to public meetings requirements by passing a general law by at least a two-thirds vote of both the Senate and the House of Representatives.³³ The exemption must explicitly lay out the public necessity justifying the exemption, and must be no broader than necessary to accomplish the stated purpose of the exemption.³⁴ A statutory exemption which does not meet these two criteria may be unconstitutional and may not be judicially saved.³⁵

The following are general exemptions from the requirement that all meetings of any state agency or authority be open to the public:

- That portion of a meeting that would reveal a security or fire safety system plan; and
- Any portion of a team meeting at which negotiation strategies are discussed.³⁶

Practitioner Profiles

Pursuant to s. 456.041, F.S., the DOH operates a database of Florida's health care practitioners, which includes physicians. The practitioner profile database is online and searchable.³⁷ The profile may include information that is public record and relates to the practitioner's profession.³⁸ Practitioners and the DOH are required to update profiles.³⁹ Information exempt from public disclosure and submitted by another governmental entity that the DOH uses for practitioner profiles, continues to maintain its exempt status.⁴⁰

Interstate Medical Licensure Compact and Commission

Interstate Medical Licensure Compact

The Interstate Medical Licensure Compact (Compact) provides an expedited pathway for medical and osteopathic physicians to qualify to practice medicine across state lines within a licensure compact. Currently, 29 states, the District of Columbia and the Territory of Guam which cover 43 medical and osteopathic boards participate in the Compact.⁴¹

Approximately 80 percent of physicians meet the eligibility guidelines for licensure through the Compact.⁴² The providers' applications are expedited by using the information previously submitted in their state of principal licensure (SPL). The physician can then seek expedited licensure in member states after a fresh background check is completed.

Interstate Medical Licensure Compact Commission

The Interstate Medical Licensure Compact Commission (commission) is created in Section 11 of the Compact and serves as the administrative arm of the Compact and the member states. Each member state has two voting representatives on the commission and, if the state has separate regulatory boards for allopathic and osteopathic, then the representation is split between the two boards.⁴³

The commission meets at least once per calendar year in a publicly noticed meeting. The Compact also creates an Executive Committee that may act on behalf of the commission, with the exception of rulemaking. Information, rules, and minutes of the commission and the Executive Committee, with the exception of those areas that may be closed to the public, are available to the public for inspection.⁴⁴

All or a portion of a commission meeting may be closed to the public if a topic is likely to involve certain matters, based on a two-thirds vote of those commission members present at the meeting. The areas covered by a closed meeting are:

- Personnel matters;
- Matters specifically exempted from disclosure by federal law;
- Trade secrets, commercial, or financial information that is privileged or confidential;
- Information that involves accusing a person of a crime or that formally censures a person;
- Information of a personal nature where disclosure would clearly constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- Investigative records compiled for law enforcement purposes; or
- Information that specifically relates to the commission's participation in a civil action or other legal proceeding.⁴⁵

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Section 1 creates s. 456.4502, F.S., to make a physician's personal identifying information, other than the physician's name, licensure status, or licensure number, obtained from the IMLC's coordinated information system, as defined in s. 456.4501, F.S., and held by the DOH or the Boards, exempt from public disclosure under s. 119.07(1), F.S., and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution. The personal identifying information is exempt from public disclosure under the bill unless the state that originally reported the information to the coordinated information system authorizes the disclosure of such information. Under such circumstances, the information may only be disclosed to the extent permitted by the reporting state's law.

The bill also creates an exemption from s. 286.011, F.S., and s. 24(b), Art. I, of the State Constitution for a meeting or any portion of a meeting of the commission that is closed to the public by a two-thirds vote of the commission members present. Such a meeting may be closed if Commission members believe that the meeting would likely:

- Relate solely to the internal personnel practices and procedures of the commission;
- Involve discussion of matters exempted from disclosure by federal statute;
- Involve discussion of trade secrets, commercial, or financial information that is privileged or confidential;
- Involve accusing a person of a crime or that formally censures a person;
- Involve discussion of information of a personal nature where disclosure would clearly constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- Involve discussion of investigative records compiled for law enforcement purposes; or
- Relate specifically to participation in a civil action or other legal proceeding.

Recordings, minutes, and records generated during an exempt meeting are exempt from s. 119.07(1), F.S., and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution.

These exemptions are subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act and will stand repealed on October 2, 2024, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

Section 2 provides, as required by the State Constitution, a statement of public necessity which provides that protection of the specified information is required under the Compact which the state must adopt in order to become a member state and a party to the Compact. Without the public records exemption, the state would be unable to effectively and efficiently function as a member of the Compact.

Additionally, the bill provides a statement of public necessity, as required by the Florida Constitution, for protecting any meeting or portion of a meeting of the commission at which matters specifically exempted from disclosure by federal or state statute are discussed. These meetings or portions of meetings would be exempted from s. 286.011, F.S., and s. 24(b), Art. I, of the State Constitution. Without the public meeting exemption, the state will be prohibited from becoming a party to the Compact.

The bill includes a statement of public necessity by the Legislature that the recordings, minutes, and records generated during an exempt meeting of the commission are exempt pursuant to s. 464.0096, F.S., and exempt from s. 119.07(1), F.S., and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution. Release of such information would negate the public meeting exemption.

Section 3 provides that the bill takes effect on the same date as SB 926 or similar legislation takes effect, if such legislation is adopted in the same legislative session or an extension thereof and becomes law.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

Not applicable. The bill does not require counties or municipalities to take action requiring the expenditure of funds, reduce the authority that counties or municipalities have to raise revenue in the aggregate, nor reduce the percentage of state tax shared with counties or municipalities.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

Vote Requirement

Article I, section 24(c), of the State Constitution requires a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting for final passage of a bill creating or expanding an exemption to the public records requirements. This bill creates a public records exemption and a public meeting exemption; therefore, it requires a two-thirds vote.

Public Necessity Statement

Article I, section 24(c), of the State Constitution requires a bill creating or expanding an exemption to the public records requirements to state with specificity the public necessity justifying the exemption. Section 2 includes a public necessity statement that supports the exemptions.

Breadth of Exemption

Article I, section 24(c), of the State Constitution requires exemptions to the public records and public meetings requirements to be no broader than necessary to accomplish the stated purpose of the law. It is not clear if the public records exemption is broader than necessary to accomplish the purposes outlined in the public necessity statement. The exemption covers a physician's personal identifying information (excluding a physician's name, licensure status and license number) that is otherwise exempt in the physician's home state. In the context of the Compact, it is not clear what information would be considered "personal identifying information" for purposes of this exemption. Personal identifying information is used throughout the Florida Statutes and is not defined. It is not clear if a state would consider a physician's business address, certifications, or level of education to be personal identifying information. State laws are also subject to change, so it is not clear if this exemption is limited to state laws as currently enacted or in the future. Therefore, the breadth of the exemption is subject to change depending on when or how the DOH and the Boards interpret the laws of the physician's home state.

It is also unclear if the public meetings exemption is broader than necessary to accomplish the purposes outlined in the public necessity statement. The bill provides instances during which a public meeting may be closed. Some of those matters are already exempted under Florida's public meetings exemptions.⁴⁶ In addition, the bill provides that the commission has the authority to vote on when it will close a meeting, so it is not clear exactly which meetings or portions of meetings will be closed. The bill provides the commission with authority to close a meeting or a portion of a meeting by a two-thirds vote. This could be considered an overly broad exemption. Additionally, one of the seven reasons enumerated upon which the commission may vote to close a meeting is when the meeting would likely involve a discussion of personal information that would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. This may conflict with article 1, section 23, of the State Constitution which provides:

⁴⁶ Meetings with attorneys on pending litigation are exempt under s. 286.011(8), F.S. Competitive solicitations team meetings and some negotiations are exempt under s. 286.0113(2), F.S. Meetings to determine if there is probable cause to find that a

Every natural person has the right to be let alone and free from governmental intrusion into the person's private life except as otherwise provided herein. This section shall not be construed to limit the public's right of access to public records and meetings as provided by law.

Courts will look to the Legislature to balance these competing interests.⁴⁷
