Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Section 843.22, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

843.22 Traveling across county lines with intent to commit a felony burglary.—

- (1) As used in this section, the term:
- (a) "County of residence" means the county within this state in which a person resides. Evidence of a person's county of residence includes, but is not limited to:
- 1. The address on a person's driver license or state identification card;
 - 2. Records of real property or mobile home ownership;
 - 3. Records of a lease agreement for residential property;
- 4. The county in which a person's motor vehicle is registered;
 - 5. The county in which a person is enrolled in an educational institution; and

- 6. The county in which a person is employed.
- (b) "Felony offense" means a felony violation of any of the following:
 - 1. "Burglary," means burglary as defined in s. 810.02.7
 - 2. Grand theft, as prohibited under s. 812.014.
- 3. Trafficking in a controlled substance, as prohibited under s. 893.135.

For purposes of this paragraph, the term includes including an attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit such offense.

(2) If a person who commits a felony offense burglary travels any distance with the intent to commit the felony offense burglary in a county in this state other than the person's county of residence, the degree of the felony offense burglary shall be reclassified to the next higher degree if the purpose of the person's travel is to thwart law enforcement attempts to track the items stolen in the felony offense burglary. For purposes of sentencing under chapter 921 and determining incentive gain-time eligibility under chapter 944, a felony offense burglary that is reclassified under this section is ranked one level above the ranking specified in s. 921.0022 or s. 921.0023 for the felony offense burglary committed.

Section 2. This act shall take effect October 1, 2021.
