Representative Sabatini offered the following:

Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 134 and 135, insert:

Section 3. Section 1003.441, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

1003.441 Teaching of divisive concepts.—

(1) As used in this section, the term:

(a) "Divisive concepts" means the concept that:

1. One race or sex in inherently superior to another race or sex.

2. The United States is fundamentally racist or sexist.

3. An individual, by virtue of his or her race or sex, is inherently racist, sexist, or oppressive, whether consciously or unconsiously.

4. An individual should be discriminated against or receive adverse treatment solely or partly because of his or her race or sex.

5. An individual cannot and should not be treated with respect because of his or her race or sex.

6. An individual's moral character is necessarily determined by his or her race or sex.

7. An individual, by virtue of his or her race or sex, bears responsibility for actions committed in the past by other members of the same race or sex.

8. Any individual should feel discomfort, guilt, anguish, or any other form of psychological distress on account of his or her race or sex.

9. Meritocracy or traits such as a hard work ethic are racist or sexist or were created by one race to oppress another race.

10. Any other form of race or sex stereotyping or any other form of race or sex scapegoating.

(b) "Race or sex scapegoating" means assigning fault, blame, or bias to one race or sex or to a member of one race or sex because of his or her race or sex. It also includes any claim that consciously or unconsciously and by virtue of his or her race or sex, members of one race are inherently racist or sexist.
are inherently inclined to oppress others, or that members of one sex are inherently sexist or inclined to oppress others.

(c) "Race or sex stereotyping" means ascribing character traits, values, moral and ethical codes, privileges, status, or beliefs to one race or sex or to an individual because of his or her race or sex.

(2) Public schools, including charter schools, are prohibited from teaching, instructing, or training any student to believe any divisive concept.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a teacher may be dismissed or not be reemployed for teaching, instructing, or training any student to believe any divisive concept.

(4) This section does not prohibit the discussion of divisive concepts as part of a larger course of academic instruction, in an objective manner and without endorsement of any concept.

(5) The State Board of Education shall adopt rules to implement this section.

----------------------------------------------------------------------------

T I T L E  A M E N D M E N T

Between lines 13 and 14, insert:
creating s. 1003.441, F.S.; providing definitions; prohibiting public and charter schools from teaching divisive concepts; providing that a teacher may be dismissed or not be reemployed if he or she teaches divisive concepts; providing construction; requiring the State Board of Education to adopt rules;