The Committee on Judiciary (Polsky) recommended the following:

Senate Amendment to Amendment (280944) (with title amendment)

Between lines 5 and 6 insert:

Section 1. Subsection (9) of section 626.112, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

626.112 License and appointment required; agents, customer representatives, adjusters, insurance agencies, service representatives, managing general agents.—

(9) Any person who knowingly transacts insurance or otherwise engages in insurance activities in this state without a license in violation of this section or who knowingly aids or abets an unlicensed person in transacting insurance or otherwise engaging in insurance activities in this state without a license commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

Section 2. Section 626.5813, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

626.5813 Claims adjusting.—

(1)(a) As used in this section, the term “claims adjusting” means directly or indirectly:

1. Attempting or undertaking to ascertain and determine the amount of any claim, loss, or damage payable under an insurance contract or undertaking to negotiate or effect settlement of a claim, loss, or damage under an insurance contract, if such action results in payment to or receipt of money, commission, or any other thing of value by the party or parties rendering such service or persons affiliated with such party or parties; or

2. Soliciting services as described in subparagraph 1. or soliciting an insured or policyholder to file an insurance claim.

(b) The term does not include:

1. Paid services as a spokesperson used as part of a written or an electronic advertisement.

2. Paid services as a photographer or videographer used to capture images of damage.

3. Paid services to inventory personal property or business personal property.

4. Discussion or explanation of a bid for construction or repair services by a licensed contractor under part I of chapter 489, or a subcontractor for a licensed contractor, with a property owner or the insurer of the property.

(2) Except for a duly licensed attorney at law as exempted under s. 626.860 or an agent as exempted under s. 626.862, a person may not provide claims adjusting services unless licensed and appointed as an adjuster under this part.

(3) The department may take administrative action and impose fines against any persons performing claims adjusting, soliciting, marketing, or any other services under this section or s. 626.854 without the licensure required under s. 626.112 or s. 626.854.
