12 sentencing court if none of those sections apply, must notify 13 the appropriate supervisor of elections of the person who has 14 been disqualified from voting based on a felony conviction for 15 an offense other than murder or a felony sexual offense. Upon 16 receipt of such information, the supervisor must provide a 17 notification to any such person stating that he or she is 18 eligible for voting rights restoration upon payment of any 19 outstanding fines or fees so long as he or she has completed all 20 other terms of sentence and meets any other requirements under 21 s. 4, Art. VI of the State Constitution and this code.
