COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

---

I. Summary:

CS/SB 1244 amends s. 775.15, F.S., to provide that there is no time limitation for the prosecution of:

- Any offense in ch. 794, F.S., relating to sexual battery, with specified exceptions;
- Section 800.04(7)(a)3., F.S., relating to certain acts of lewd or lascivious exhibition; or
- Section 827.071(2) or (3), F.S., relating to use of a child in a sexual performance or promoting a sexual performance of a child.

The bill provides that the exceptions to time limitations apply to any offense that is not otherwise barred from prosecution on or before July 1, 2022.

Section 775.15, F.S., sets forth time limitations for the prosecution of crime. Prosecution is barred if it is not commenced within the time limitations provided in this section. The general time limitations for the prosecution of offenses are based upon the degree of offense, however there are multiple exceptions to the general time limitations.

The bill is effective July 1, 2022.

II. Present Situation:

Statute of Limitations

Historical Perspective

At common law, there was no time limitation under which a criminal charge was barred from prosecution. Time limitations for criminal prosecutions exist only as a creation of statute and are considered to be acts of grace by the State.<sup>1</sup>

In State v. Hickman, the court stated:

The only purpose of a Statute limiting the time within which a criminal charge may be prosecuted is to protect every person from being interminably under the threat or cloud of possible criminal prosecution, which otherwise might be indefinitely delayed until the time when defense witnesses might die, disappear or otherwise become unavailable, judges would change office, or innumerable other time hazards might develop, which could conceivably defeat, or at least hamper, an otherwise good defense.<sup>2</sup>

Since the creation of statutes of limitation, courts have held that:

- Generally, the statute of limitation that was in effect when a crime was committed controls.<sup>3</sup>
- Statutes of limitation in criminal cases should be construed liberally in favor of the defendant.<sup>4</sup>
- The Legislature may apply time limitations retroactively without violating the ex post facto clause of the State Constitution<sup>5</sup> if the Legislature makes the change before the prosecution is barred under the old statute and clearly demonstrates that the new statute applies to cases pending when the extension takes effect.<sup>6</sup>
- Courts have recently upheld extensions of time limitations for sexual battery when the amendment takes effect before the case was procedurally barred.<sup>7</sup>

<sup>7</sup> Brown v. State, 179 So. 3d 466, 468 (Fla. 4th DCA 2015) (The court affirmed the conviction for one count of sexual battery on a victim less than 16 years of age. The abuse occurred between May 1997 and July 1998. The abuse was reported November 15, 1999. The State brought charges against the defendant in 2011. The Statute of limitation in effect at the time of the offense would have barred prosecution in November 2003; however, the Legislature amended the statute of limitations in October 2003 to provide no time limitation for the offense for which the defendant was charged. Because the case was not barred at the time the amended statute of limitations went into effect, the court held that the statute of limitation was properly extended and did not violate the ex post facto clause).

Existing Provisions

Section 775.15, F.S., sets forth time limitations, also referred to as statutes of limitation, for the prosecution of crime. Prosecution is barred if it is not commenced within the time limitations provided in this section. The time limitation for prosecuting a criminal case begins to run on the day after the offense is committed, unless otherwise stated. An offense is deemed to have been committed when either every element of the offense has occurred or, if it plainly appears that the legislative purpose is to prohibit a continuing course of conduct, at the time when the course of conduct or the defendant's complicity therein is terminated.<sup>8</sup>

In part, s. 775.15, F.S., provides time limitations for initiating a criminal prosecution for a felony offense. The general provisions provide that there is:

- No time limitation for prosecuting a capital felony, a life felony, a felony resulting in death.<sup>9</sup>
- A 4-year time limitation for prosecuting a first degree felony.<sup>10</sup>
- A 3-year time limitation for prosecuting a second or third degree felony.<sup>11</sup>

However, a number of exceptions to the time limitation provisions mentioned above exist. Many of these exceptions are specific to certain offenses or types of victims. These exceptions apply, in part, to violations of s. 794.011, F.S., relating to sexual battery, and violations of s. 800.04, F.S., relating to lewd and lascivious offenses. These exceptions include:

- No time limitation for prosecuting:
  - A first or second degree felony sexual battery when the victim is under 18 years of age and he or she reports the crime to law enforcement within 72 hours provided the offense was not barred from prosecution on or before December 31, 1984;<sup>12</sup>
  - A first degree felony sexual battery when the victim is younger than 18 years of age provided the offense was not barred from prosecution on or before October 1, 2003;<sup>13</sup>
  - Any felony sexual battery when the victim is younger than 16 years of age provided the offense was not barred from prosecution on or before July 1, 2010;<sup>14</sup>
  - A first or second degree felony sexual battery when the victim is 16 years of age or older and reports the crime to law enforcement within 72 hours;<sup>15</sup>
  - Any sexual battery offense, when the victim is younger than 18 years of age when the offense was committed, and the offense was committed on or after July 1, 2020.<sup>16</sup>
  - A violation of s. 800.04(4) or (5), F.S., relating to lewd or lascivious battery or molestation, when the victim was under 16 years of age at the time of the offense, and the offense was not barred from prosecution on or before October 1, 2014. This exception to <sup>11</sup> Section 775.15(2)(b), F.S. A second degree felony is punishable by up to 15 years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine and a third degree felony is punishable by up to five years imprisonment and a $5,000 fine. Sections 775.082 and 775.083, F.S.

- the time limitation does not apply if the offender is less than 18 years of age and no more than 4 years older than the victim.<sup>17</sup>
- There is an eight-year time limitation on prosecuting a first or second degree felony sexual battery when the victim is 16 years of age or older at the time of the offense provided the offense was not barred from prosecution on or before July 1, 2015, except for:
    - A first or second degree felony sexual battery when the victim is 16 years of age or older and reports the crime to law enforcement within 72 hours; or
    - A first degree felony sexual battery when the victim is younger than 18 years of age provided the offense was not barred from prosecution on or before October 1, 2003.<sup>18</sup>

In addition to the time periods prescribed in this section, the prosecution for specific enumerated offenses,<sup>19</sup> including sexual battery, and lewd or lascivious offenses, may be prosecuted at any time after the date on which the offender's identity is established, or should have been established through the exercise of due diligence, through the analysis of deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) evidence collected at the time of the original investigation. The DNA sample for these prosecutions must be available for testing by the accused.<sup>20</sup> This exception applies to offenses that are not otherwise barred on or after July 1, 2006.<sup>21, 22</sup>

Another exception provides that the applicable period of limitation does not begin to run until the victim of a sexual battery, lewd or lascivious offense, or other specified offense reaches the age of 18 years or the violation is reported to a law enforcement or governmental agency, whichever occurs first. This provision only applies to a victim who was younger than 18 years of age at the time of the offense.<sup>23</sup>

IV. Constitutional Issues:*A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

This bill appears to be exempt from the requirements of Article VII, Section 18 of the Florida Constitution because it is a criminal law.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

None identified.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:*A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

None.

C. Government Sector Impact:

The Criminal Justice Impact Conference has not reviewed the bill at this time. However, the bill will likely have a positive indeterminate (unquantifiable positive prison bed) impact on the Department of Corrections due to removing the time limitation for prosecution of these offenses. There may be individuals in the future who are prosecuted, who would have otherwise been barred from prosecution without the changes made in the bill.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

None.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends section 775.15 of the Florida Statutes.

IX. Additional Information:

- A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Substantial Changes:
(Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)

CS by Criminal Justice on February 1, 2022:

The committee substitute removes s. 794.026, F.S., from the list of exceptions provided in the bill. Additionally, the bill removes unnecessary language to clarify the applicability of the bill.

- B. Amendments:

None.
