SUMMARY ANALYSIS

A criminal history record includes any nonjudicial record maintained by a criminal justice agency that contains criminal history information. Such information may be collected by criminal justice agencies related to identifiable descriptions of individuals and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, other formal criminal charges, and criminal dispositions. A court may order a criminal history record sealed, rendering it confidential and exempt from Florida’s public records laws.

To obtain a court sealing, a person must first apply to the Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) for a certificate of eligibility, which FDLE must issue to a person who, among other statutory qualifiers, is not seeking to seal a criminal history record relating to a violation of certain enumerated offenses, and has never secured a prior sealing or expunction.

Upon receiving a certificate of eligibility from FDLE, a person must petition the court to seal the record. It is solely within the court’s discretion to grant or deny a petition to seal.

In 2019, an additional process for sealing of criminal records was adopted, providing for the automatic sealing of records by FDLE. A criminal history record that does not relate to a forcible felony or an offense which requires the offender to register as a sexual offender, must be automatically sealed by FDLE when:

- Charges were not filed;
- Charges were dismissed, unless the dismissal was due to incompetency to proceed; or
- The defendant was acquitted, by either a verdict of not guilty or a judgment of acquittal.

Unlike the court-ordered sealing process, there no limit on the number of criminal records a person may seal by the automatic sealing process by FDLE.

Currently, a criminal justice agency or a court is not required to seal its records as a result of automatic sealing by FDLE. Thus, prosecutors, law enforcement, and judges retain access to certain records automatically sealed by FDLE.

The bill provides that a person is eligible to petition a court to seal a criminal history record when the criminal history record was automatically sealed by FDLE, and the subject of the sealed record presents proof of the sealing by FDLE to the court.

The bill allows the court to grant the sealing of a criminal history record that was automatically sealed by FDLE at any time and without limitation based on any prior sealing of a subject’s criminal records.

The bill requires FDLE to issue a certificate of eligibility for sealing upon request to a person who is the subject of a criminal history record automatically sealed by FDLE.

The bill may have an indeterminate fiscal impact on state and local governments.

The bill provides an effective date of July 1, 2022.

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Sealing of Criminal History Records

A criminal history record includes any nonjudicial record maintained by a criminal justice agency¹ that contains criminal history information.² Criminal history information is information collected by criminal justice agencies consisting of identifiable descriptions of individuals and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, other formal criminal charges, and criminal dispositions.³

Sealing

A court may order a criminal history record sealed,⁴ rendering it confidential and exempt from Florida's public records laws.⁵ Only the following may access a sealed criminal history record:

- The subject of the record;
- His or her attorney;
- Criminal justice agencies for criminal justice purposes;
- Judges in the state courts system for assisting in their case-related decision-making responsibilities; and
- Certain enumerated entities⁶ for licensing, access authorization, and employment purposes.⁷

Upon sealing of a criminal history record, the subject of the record may lawfully deny or fail to acknowledge the arrests covered by the sealed record, with exceptions for certain state employment positions, professional licensing purposes, purchasing a firearm, applying for a concealed weapons permit, seeking expunction, or if the subject is a defendant in a criminal prosecution.⁸

A criminal history record is not eligible for court-ordered sealing if it relates to:

- Sexual misconduct;⁹
- Illegal use of explosives;¹⁰
- Terrorism;¹¹
- Murder;¹²
- Manslaughter or homicide;¹³

- Aircraft piracy;⁴¹
- Manufacturing a controlled substance;⁴²
- Drug trafficking;⁴³ or
- Any violation specified as a predicate offense for registration as a sexual predator⁴⁴ or sexual offender.⁴⁵

To obtain a court-ordered sealing, a person must first apply to the Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) for a certificate of eligibility, which FDLE must issue to a person who:

- Has submitted a certified copy of the charge disposition he or she seeks to seal;
- Is not seeking to seal a criminal history record relating to a violation of certain enumerated offenses;
- Has never, prior to filing the application for a certificate of eligibility, been either:
 - Adjudicated guilty of any criminal offense or comparable ordinance violation; or
 - Adjudicated delinquent of certain enumerated crimes as a juvenile.
- Has not been adjudicated guilty or delinquent for committing any of the acts stemming from the arrest or alleged criminal activity to which the petition to seal pertains;
- Has never secured a prior sealing or expunction; and
- Is no longer under court supervision related to the disposition of the arrest or alleged criminal activity to which the petition to seal pertains.⁴⁶

Upon receiving a certificate of eligibility from FDLE, a person must petition the court to seal the record.⁴⁷ A complete petition contains both a valid certificate of eligibility, issued within the previous 12 months, and a sworn statement from the petitioner attesting to his or her eligibility.⁴⁸ It is solely within the court's discretion to grant or deny a petition to seal.⁴⁹

Automatic Sealing by FDLE

In 2019, an additional process for sealing of criminal records was adopted by the Florida Legislature. It provides for the automatic sealing of certain criminal history records by FDLE.

FDLE must automatically seal a criminal history record if the record does not result from an indictment, information, or other charging document for a forcible felony⁵⁰ or for an offense which requires the offender to register as a sexual offender⁵¹ when:⁵²

- Charges were not filed;
- Charges were dismissed, unless the dismissal was due to incompetency to proceed;⁵³ or
- The defendant was acquitted, by either a verdict of not guilty or a judgment of acquittal.

⁵⁰ Forcible felonies include treason; murder; manslaughter; sexual battery; carjacking; home-invasion robbery; robbery; burglary; arson; kidnapping; aggravated assault; aggravated battery; aggravated stalking; aircraft piracy; unlawful throwing, placing, or discharging of a destructive device or bomb; and any other felony which involves the use or threat of physical force or violence against any individual. S. 776.08, F.S.

⁵¹ Conviction for an offense enumerated in s. 943.0435(1)(h)1.a.(I), F.S., requires the offender to register as a sexual offender.

⁵² S. 943.0595(2)(a), F.S.

⁵³ A defendant is incompetent to proceed when he or she is unable to consult with counsel with a reasonable degree of rational understanding or does not have a rational and factual understanding of the pending proceedings. Fla. R. Crim. P. 3.211; Dusky v. United States, 362 U.S. 402 (1960). Section 916.145, F.S., requires a court to dismiss the charges against a defendant who has been adjudicated incompetent to proceed due to mental illness under certain circumstances. Section 985.19, F.S., requires a court to dismiss the delinquency petition of a minor under certain circumstances.

Unlike the court-ordered sealing process, automatic sealing is not contingent on the person's prior criminal history. A prior adjudication of guilt does not disqualify an applicant. Additionally, there is no limit on the number of sealings a person may receive by this process.⁵⁴

However, if the criminal history record is an indictment, information, or other charging document for a forcible felony or a sexual offender offense, the record is not eligible for automatic sealing.⁵⁵

Currently, a criminal justice agency or a court is not required to seal its records as a result of automatic sealing.⁵⁶ Thus, certain government agencies, prosecutors, law enforcement, and judges retain access to a record automatically sealed by FDLE.⁵⁷

Separation of Powers

Article II, section 3 of the Florida Constitution, known as the "separation of powers doctrine," provides that "no person belonging to one branch shall exercise any powers appertaining to either of the other branches unless expressly provided [in the constitution]." The Florida Constitution vests legislative power in the legislative branch, executive power in the executive branch, and judicial power in the judicial branch.⁵⁸

Generally, the legislature has the power to enact substantive law for which courts are established to administer, while the Florida judiciary has the power to enact procedural law.⁵⁹ Substantive law is that which defines, creates, or regulates rights, which may be enforced by the judiciary.⁶⁰ In contrast, procedural law is the form, manner, or means by which substantive law is implemented, including all rules governing the parties, their counsel and the court throughout the progress of the case from the time of its initiation until final judgment and its execution; it may be described as the "machinery of the judicial process as opposed to the product thereof."⁶¹ However, the legislature can repeal rules of court by general law enacted by a two-thirds vote of the members of each house, but the legislature may not amend or supersede such rules.⁶²

Effect of the Bill

The bill provides that a person is eligible to petition a court to seal a criminal history record when the criminal history record was automatically sealed by FDLE, and the subject of the sealed record presents proof of the sealing by FDLE to the court.

The bill allows the court to grant the sealing of a criminal history record that was automatically sealed by FDLE at any time and without limitation based on any prior sealing by FDLE of a subject's criminal records.

The bill requires FDLE to issue a certificate of eligibility for sealing upon request to a person who is the subject of a criminal history record automatically sealed by FDLE.

The bill provides an effective date of July 1, 2022.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:

1. Revenues:

FDLE provided the following estimate based on a similar Senate bill:⁶³

Requiring FDLE to issue a certificate of eligibility would result in an application process. Assuming FDLE adopts the same application rules as outlined for relief under court-ordered sealing laws, there would be a processing fee of $75 per application. Based on 24,015 estimated new applications for processing, FDLE would collect approximately $1.8 million in new fees. If there is no application fee applied, there no revenue would be generated.

2. Expenditures:

FDLE provided the following estimate based on a similar Senate bill:⁶⁴

FDLE estimated that it will need 60 additional full time employees (FTEs) totaling $4,142,020 ($3,869,260 recurring) and approximately $147,000 to modify existing IT systems necessary to implement the changes related to a similar Senate bill.

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues:

None

2. Expenditures:

There may be an increase in requests to courts for sealing of records, and therefore an increase in workload.

C. DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR:

None.

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

None.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

Not applicable. This bill does not appear to affect county or municipal governments.

2. Other:

None.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

IV. AMENDMENTS/COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

On February 8, 2022, the Regulatory Reform Subcommittee considered a proposed committee substitute and reported the bill favorably as a committee substitute. The committee substitute differs from HB 1259 by:

- Removing provisions that limit how the Department of Business and Professional Regulation may use an applicant's criminal history when granting or denying an occupational license, and
- Clarifying the new process for court sealing of criminal history records based on FDLE automatic sealing of such records.

The analysis is drafted to the committee substitute as passed by the Regulatory Reform Subcommittee.
